NOTIFICATION.

New Delhi, the 24th March 1938.

No. F. 27 (2)-R. 11/38.—The following rules are published for general information:—

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 247 of the Government of India Act, 1935, the Secretary of State hereby makes the following Rules, namely:—

THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE FAMILY PENSION FUND RULES.

1.—(1) These Rules may be called the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Fund Rules.

(2) They apply (a) to All persons who, being on 31st March, 1937, subscribers to or beneficiaries under the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Rules then in force, did not, under the provisions of paragraph 19 of the Government of India (Family Pension Funds) Order, 1936, make objection to the vesting in Commissioners of their interest in the fund formed from contributions paid under those Rules.

(b) To all European, Anglo-Indian or Anglo-Burman officers appointed to the Indian Civil Service after 31st March, 1937.

(c) To all European, Anglo-Indian or Anglo-Burman officers of the Burma Civil Service, Class I, who under the provisions of the Rules relating to their conditions of service, are required to subscribe.

(3) If any question arises as to whether these Rules apply or do not apply to any individual member of the Indian Civil Service or Burma Civil Service, Class I, the question shall be decided by the Secretary of State and his decision shall be final.

2.—(1) Every officer to whom these rules apply (hereinafter referred to as a subscriber) shall make, with effect from 1st April, 1937, or from the date of his arrival in India or Burma to take up his appointment, whichever is the later, the contributions and payments* hereinafter prescribed.

(2) There shall be paid by or by authority of the Secretary of State to every beneficiary, and to the dependants of every subscriber, to whom these rules apply, at the rates and under the conditions hereinafter prescribed,

(a) pensions or other benefits to be paid from the Pension Fund;

(b) pensions or other benefits to be paid from the revenues of the Central Government:

Provided that the pensions payable under clause (b) of this sub-rule to the dependants of any subscriber who on the 31st March, 1937, was included in the Burma cadre of his service and after that date became a member of a Burma Service or to whom clause (c) of sub-rule

*These contributions and payments are fixed in sterling and when recovered or paid in India or Burma are convertible into rupees at the current rate of exchange.

(1) of Rule 1 of these Rules applies shall, if the Secretary of State for Burma makes provision to that end be payable from the Revenues of Burma and not from the Revenues of the Central Government.

3. The sums so contributed and paid by the subscribers shall be accounted for to the Secretary of State and shall be credited in his books to an account entitled the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Fund; and there shall be debited to the said account all payments in respect of pensions, benefits or other outgoings properly payable out of the fund.

4. The Secretary of State shall, at such times and in such manner as may be agreed between him and the Commissioners appointed under the provisions of the Government of India (Family Pension Funds) Order, 1936, pay to or receive from the said Commissioners the amounts by which the receipts credited to the above-mentioned account exceed or fall short of the payments debited thereto as the case may be.

5. The Secretary of State may by amending these Rules, make such alterations in the rates and conditions of contribution and benefit as he shall from time to time think necessary. Every such alteration shall, in the absence of provision in the Rules to the contrary, take effect from the first day of the month following the date of publication of the amendment in the "Gazette of India":

Provided that no alteration shall operate to reduce the pension payable to any person already in receipt thereof otherwise than by the withdrawal or reduction of any increase granted temporarily or by making any reduction deemed to be necessary in consequence of the transfer of the Fund to Commissioners under the provisions of the Government of India (Family Pension Funds) Order, 1936.

6. —(1) The Secretary of State shall from time to time, at such periods as he may determine, place the accounts of the Fund, together with statistics of the ages, births, marriages and deaths of the subscribers and of their dependants, before such Actuary or Actuaries as he may select, with instructions to examine them and report thereon.

(2) The Report of the Actuary or Actuaries shall be published in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct.

7. The monthly contributions payable by a Subscriber shall be those shown in the First Schedule to these Rules, and shall be deducted from his pay at the time of issue. If at any time a subscriber is not in receipt of pay he shall not thereby be relieved of the obligation to pay the contributions due from him.*

8. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23 and Rule 25, contributions payable under Rule 7 shall cease when the subscriber retires from the Service on a pension.

9.—(1) A subscriber who is dismissed from the service shall thereupon cease to be a subscriber and his family shall cease to be entitled to any benefits under these Rules, nor shall the subscriber be entitled to any refund of contributions or other payments.

*If a subscriber is not in receipt of pay from a Government in India, or the Government of Burma, he should arrange to pay the contributions due from him, either by cash or by cheque, to the Accountant-General, India Office, to the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or to the Accountant-General, Burma.

(2) A subscriber who resigns or is removed from the service or who retires without being entitled to a pension shall thereupon cease to be a subscriber and his family shall cease to be entitled to any benefits under these rules, but the subscriber may be granted a lump sum, the amount of which shall be fixed in each case by the Secretary of State, whose decision shall be final; and it shall be open to the Secretary of State, before deciding upon the amount, if any, of such lump sum, to require medical evidence, in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule, of the health of any or all of the dependants of the subscriber.

10. Subject to the provisions of Rule 8, the contribution payable on behalf of a child is payable in the case of a son until his attainment of the age of 24 years or previous death, and in the case of a daughter until her marriage or previous death.

11.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Rules 12A, 13 and 23A, every subscriber in the Service shall report his marriage in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule, within one month of the date thereof, or within one month of his arrival in India or Burma if he was then married, and shall on marriage, or remarriage, or on entering the Service married pay, in addition to the monthly contributions prescribed by Rule 7, the donation specified in the Third Schedule to these Rules against the year of his age, and if the age of the subscriber exceeds that of his wife by five years or more he shall further pay the disparity fine specified in the Fourth Schedule.*

(2) Donations and disparity fines payable under this Rule may be paid either in one sum or in 12 equal monthly instalments, and if paid in instalments interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum shall be levied on the unpaid portion; but any instalment may, if the subscriber so desires, be paid in advance of the due date.

(3) Donations and disparity fines payable on marriage shall be increased by 2½ per cent. if the fact of marriage is not reported within one month from the date thereof, and by 5 per cent. if the delay exceeds six months. If the marriage is not reported within one year, the subscriber may be required to produce medical evidence of the state of his health in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule and the Secretary of State shall in each case decide whether, and, if so, on what terms, contribution for widows' pension shall be required.†

*The reports required by these Rules should be made:—

- (1) To the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, when the subscriber is drawing pay in India or in a Colony to which he has gone direct from India,
- (2) To the Accountant-General, Burma, when the subscriber is drawing pay in Burma or in a Colony to which he has gone direct from Burma, or
- (3) To the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office, Whitehall, London, S. W. 1, when the subscriber is drawing his pay in England or in a Colony to which he has gone direct from England.

†These clauses 11 (3) and 12 (3) are not to be read as implying an option of omitting or postponing any report that a subscriber is required to make under Rules 11 and 12. Intentional neglect to report is a breach of discipline.

12.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Rule 13, every subscriber in the Service‡ shall report in the form prescribed in the Sixth Schedule, within one month of its occurrence, the birth of every child born alive in wedlock, or, if he was married and had children living at the date of his arrival in India or Burma, he shall report their names and dates of birth within one month of that date.*

(2) No payment shall be required in respect of any child who dies within 30 days of birth.

(3) If the birth of a child is not reported within one month, the subscriber shall pay a fine of 12s. and a further fine of 2s. for each succeeding month's delay. If the delay exceeds 12 months, the subscriber may be required to produce medical evidence of the state of his health in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule, and the Secretary of State shall in each case decide whether, and, if so, on what terms, contribution for orphan's pension shall be required.†

12A. Contributions under Rule 7 shall not be payable by a subscriber in active service appointed before 1st April, 1910. Provided that if such a subscriber shall marry before retirement, he shall pay on marriage, in addition to the contributions specified in Rule 11, the sum of £200.

13. Reports shall not be accepted nor contributions or payments received in respect of any wife married during the life-time of another wife, or of any child born of a wife married as aforesaid; and no wife married as aforesaid or child born of such a marriage shall be entitled to any benefit under these Rules.

14. Interest from the due date at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum shall be charged on monthly contributions or donations or any portion thereof remaining unpaid for more than one month from such date.

15. Any contribution or payment due at a subscriber's death shall be deducted, without any addition for interest beyond the date of death, in four quarterly instalments from the pensions due to his dependants:

Provided that if the sum due as aforesaid is more than half the annual amount of the pensions it shall be deducted in such a number of quarterly instalments as the Secretary of State may direct.

16. The widow or child of a deceased subscriber whose marriage or birth was not reported by the subscriber during his life-time in accordance with these Rules shall be entitled to no benefit under these Rules; but the Secretary of State may, on good cause being shown for the omission to report a marriage or birth, admit such a widow or child to a pension on terms to be fixed by him.

‡Retired officers, not being liable for subscription in respect of children born of marriages contracted before retirement, are not subject to the provisions of Rule 12, but they should, in the interests of their children, report every birth without delay, as failure to do so will entail loss of benefit under the provision of Rule 6.

*See note * on p. 465.

†See note † on p. 467.

This Rule is designed to apply to subscribers who may lawfully have more than one wife living at the same time.

17.—(1) A posthumous child of a subscriber by a marriage contracted before retirement and duly reported in accordance with Rule 11 shall be entitled to pension without payment.

(2) No child shall be entitled to benefit under this Rule whose birth is not reported within 12 months of its occurrence.

18. Subject to the provisions of Rule 21, the pension of a widow under these Rules shall continue in full during widowhood. On remarriage she shall retain half her pension during coverture, but if she again become a widow she shall be entitled to revert to full pension, and, should her last husband have been a subscriber, to draw in addition pension as his widow. Reduction to the half rate shall take effect from the commencement of the quarter following that in which the remarriage occurred; the full pension shall be restored from the day following that on which the pensioner again becomes a widow.

19.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Rule 21, the pension of a male orphan shall be payable until he attains the age of 24:

Provided that in any case where it is shown that a male orphan on attaining the age of 24 years is by reason of mental or physical disability incapable of earning a livelihood, the Secretary of State may at his discretion permit such male orphan to continue to draw beyond that age a pension of an amount not exceeding that of which he is then in receipt:

Provided further that if a male orphan shall be over the age of 24 years on the date of his father's death, and if it shall be shown that by reason of mental or physical infirmity he was not at the age of 24 years and has not at any subsequent period been capable of earning a livelihood, the Secretary of State may at his discretion grant to him a pension of amount not exceeding that laid down in the Seventh Schedule to these Rules for children who are over 12 years of age.

(2) Subject as aforesaid the pension of a female orphan is payable until the end of the quarter in which she marries, and shall not revive upon widowhood. On marriage a female orphan shall be granted a donation of £250, which shall be payable by Government as provided in clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of Rule 2 of these Rules.

(3) The Secretary of State may at his discretion permit a portion of the pension of a male orphan who has reached the age of 16 years to be commuted with a view to the proceeds being applied to the pensioner's advancement in life.

(4) The pension of a minor orphan shall be paid to his or her mother or other duly appointed or recognised guardian.

20. Declarations shall be furnished quarterly as to the continued widowhood, spinsterhood or survival of pensioners as the case may be.*

21. Pensions under these Rules shall be tenable during good behaviour, and if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the pensioner is leading an immoral life or has been guilty of gross misconduct, he may withhold further payment in whole or in part, and an order to this effect by the Secretary of State shall be final and conclusive.

*Forms for the purpose of the declarations required by this Rule are supplied by the High Commissioner for India, India House, Aldwych, London, W. C. 2, or, in the case of pensioners receiving payment in India or Burma, by the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or the Accountant-General, Burma, as the case may be.

22. A pension payable under these Rules shall enure for the benefit of the pensioner only, and no transfer, assignment or other alienation thereof shall be recognised.

23.—(1) A subscriber who marries after he has retired from the service on a pension may, if he so chooses, secure pension for his widow and for his children born of such marriage, on the conditions that reports* of occurrences are made within one month in the form prescribed in the Second or Sixth Schedule, as may be appropriate, and that a certificate of health in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule is furnished with the report of the marriage.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 8 there shall be payable on any marriage reported as aforesaid, and subject to the provisions of Rules 11, 14, and 23A, so far as they may be applicable, the donation prescribed in the Third Schedule, the disparity fine specified in the Fourth Schedule, and a further sum of £200.

23A. On the termination of the marriage of the subscriber by divorce or annulment he shall be liable thereafter until remarriage for subscription at the unmarried rate together with subscriptions for children, if any.

(2) Where the marriage has been terminated by divorce on the petition of the wife she shall be entitled after the death of her divorced husband to pension of half the amount met from the contributions of subscribers as shown in the Seventh Schedule according to the class of her husband on the date of termination of the marriage; Provided that—

(a) On remarriage she shall forfeit absolutely all claim to benefit under this Rule; and

(b) Where the divorced husband has retired on proportionate pension the Secretary of State shall in each case declare the amount of the pension for which the divorced wife is eligible; but the amount so declared shall not be less than half the amount of the pension met from the contributions of subscribers to which she would have been entitled at the date of her divorce had her husband then died.

(3) Where the marriage has been terminated by divorce on the petition of the husband he shall be exempted on remarriage from payment of the donation specified in the Third Schedule to these Rules, but this exemption shall apply on the first subsequent remarriage only.

(4) In cases of annulment the subscriber shall be entitled to receive a lump sum the amount of which shall be fixed in each case by the Secretary of State.

(5) This Rule shall not apply in the case of marriages dissolved or annulled before 16th February, 1926.

*Forms for the purpose of the declarations required by this Rule are supplied by the High Commissioner for India, India House, Aldwych, London, W. C. 2, or, in the case of pensioners receiving payment in India or Burma, by the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or the Accountant-General, Burma, as the case may be.

24. Every subscriber shall report† within one month of its occurrence the death of any dependant eligible for benefit under these Rules.

25.—(1) A subscriber who retires under the India Premature Retirement Rules, or the Burma Premature Retirement Rules may adopt, at his option, any one of the three following methods of retaining for his wife and children benefits under these Rules, namely:—

- (a) He may cease to make any contributions and payments under these Rules, and shall then retain only the right to a proportion of the contingent benefits under the Rules for his wife and children existing on the date of retirement, and for any children subsequently born to that wife. This proportion shall be equal to the number of his completed years' total service divided by 25, and the calculation shall be based upon the pension admissible to the widow of an officer of the class to which he belonged at the time of his retirement.
- (b) He may continue up to his 51st birthday to make contributions under these Rules at the rates payable by him at the date of retirement, and shall then retain the right to the full contingent benefits admissible under the Rules, according to his class on the date of his retirement, for his wife existing at the date of retirement, and for any children by her, whether born before or after retirement. Under this alternative, subscriptions will be payable under the Ordinary Rules for each child, whether born before or after retirement. In the event of the death of the wife, subscriptions at the bachelor rate appropriate to the subscriber's class on retirement will be payable until age 51.
- (c) He may continue up to his 51st birthday to make contributions and payments under these Rules at the rates which would have been payable by him from time to time had he remained in the Service. In that case he shall retain the full benefits admissible under the Rules as if he had remained in the Service until death or retirement with an ordinary pension:

Provided that, in the event of the officer failing to notify within three months of the date of his retirement the method selected by him, he shall be deemed to have elected the first of the above methods.

(2) There shall be repaid to the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Fund in accordance with the provisions of the Rules referred to in sub-rule (1) any loss thrown upon it by the operation of this Rule; and the decision of the Secretary of State as to the amount of such loss shall be final.

26. The pensions* payable under these rules, apart from any supplementary pensions secured under the provisions of Rule 26A, shall be of the amount specified in the Seventh Schedule.

*Application for admission to pension should be made to the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office, Whitehall, London, S. W. 1, or, if the applicant is in India or Burma, to the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or the Accountant-General, Burma, as the case may be.

†Reports should be made as in the case of those required by Rules 11 and 12, which see.

26A. Any subscriber to whom these Rules apply may, at any time, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed, provide supplementary pensions for his wife, sons and daughters or any of them on the terms stated in the Eighth Schedule:

Provided that the supplementary pension secured to any one dependant shall not exceed the amount stated in the Ninth Schedule.

26B.—(1) Every officer applying to subscribe for supplementary pension under the above Rule shall produce medical evidence as to the state of his health in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule.

(2) Liability for contingent pension under the said Rule shall commence (a) in the case of pensions paid for by instalments from the date of the letter notifying acceptance of the application to subscribe, from which date instalments shall be payable; and (b) in the case of pensions paid for by single premium, from the date on which, after acceptance of the application, the single premium is paid.

27.—(1) Pensions under these Rules shall be payable quarterly in advance on 1st January, 1st April, 1st July and 1st October.

(2) Pensions under these Rules shall be payable in London in sterling.* Pensioners residing in India or Burma may, however, at their option, receive payment† there in rupees at the current rate of exchange. Provided that:—

(a) Pensioners who were receiving pension in India or Burma prior to the 1st February 1921 at 1s. 4d. the rupee shall, so long as they are in India or Burma and continue to have their permanent residence there, continue to receive it at a rate not less favourable than 1s. 4d. the rupee;

(b) pensioners who were admitted to pension before the 1st February 1921, or who are dependants of subscribers in the Service on that date, and who commenced or shall commence to receive payment in India or Burma after that date, shall, so long as they are in India or Burma and have their permanent residence there, receive payment at a rate not less favourable than 1s. 8d. the rupee.

(3) A pensioner residing in India or Burma who has elected to receive pension in that country shall not subsequently be permitted to change the place of payment except at the commencement of an official year.

28. References in these Rules to the Secretary of State shall be construed as references to the Secretary of State acting with the concurrence of his advisers in accordance with the provisions of Section 261 of the Government of India Act, 1935.

29. The Indian Civil Service Family Pension Rules hitherto in force are hereby repealed.

*By the High Commissioner for India, India House, Aldwych, London, W. C. 2.

†From the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or the Accountant-General, Burma, as the case may be.

RESOLUTION.

TARIFFS.

The 25th June 1938.

No. 202-T. (4)/38.—In their Commerce Department Resolution No. 202-T. (1)/36, dated the 11th December 1937, the Government of India, when referring to the Tariff Board for examination the question of what protective measures (if any) should be continued after the 31st March 1939 in respect of the paper and paper pulp industries in India, directed that if the Tariff Board during the course of its investigations should be satisfied that the revenue surcharge of 25 per cent. imposed in 1931 on the existing paper protective duties was no longer justifiable it would be at liberty to make its recommendations in this behalf in advance of its main report.

2. The Tariff Board has accordingly submitted an interim report dated the 30th March 1938 the main findings of which are as follows:—

(i) But for the revenue surcharge the average margin of profit realised by the Paper Mills would not have been such as to give the return on the capital invested which the previous Tariff Board considered reasonable, until 1937-38 when a substantial rise in the price of imported paper enabled the Mills to raise their selling limits.

(ii) The three principal companies, who manufacture paper from bamboo or grass pulp, and whose combined output represented 85 per cent. of the total production in 1936-37, agree that having regard to the present level of prices of imported paper the continuance of the revenue surcharge is not necessary as a measure of protection. The other two companies are not in so strong a position and have pressed for the continuance of the surcharge as a measure of protection. These latter two companies have in the period under review used larger quantities of imported pulp and comparatively less indigenous material than the other three companies and have therefore a less strong claim for protection.

(iii) In the case of new and reconstituted mills, taking even the Mills' own estimates of costs, the revenue surcharge is not required as a measure of protection at the prevailing level of prices.

(iv) The continuance of the revenue surcharge on paper imposes an unnecessary burden on the consumer at the present level of prices and is not justifiable as essential to the development of the industry.

(v) Action should be taken under Section 4 of the Indian Tariff Act if the price of any class of imported paper should fall to the level which would render the protective duty ineffective.

(vi) A reduction in the price of pulp is obviously in the interests of both established and new mills to the extent to which imported pulp is used. Any considerable reduction might result in the substitution of imported pulp for pulp made from indigenous materials; but, taking into consideration the recent rise in the world price of wood pulp and the reduction in the cost of indigenous pulp since 1930-31, the removal of the surcharge is not likely to have this effect.

3. The Governor General in Council accepts these findings of the Tariff Board and has accordingly decided that the revenue surcharge on the protected classes of paper and on wood pulp should be removed forthwith by Notification under Section 4 of the Indian Tariff Act, 1934.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be communicated to all Provincial Governments, Chief Commissioners, the Political Department and the Political Officers, all Departments of the Government of India (except the Home and External Affairs Departments), the Director General of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics, the Central Board of Revenue, the Indian Trade Commissioners, London, Hamburg, Milan, Mombasa and Osaka, the Secretary, Tariff Board, the High Commissioner for India, London, His Majesty's Trade Commissioner in India, the Canadian Trade Commissioner in India, all the Chambers of Commerce and Associations, the French Trade Commissioner in India, Burma and Ceylon, the Secretary, Imperial Council of Agricultural Research and the Chief Controller of Stores.

Ordered that a copy (with 15 spare copies) be communicated also to the Government of Burma.

A note on the Pupil's materials in the Drawing Class.

It appears (though it is not very clearly put in the syllabus) that work in classes 3 and 4 is in pencil and pastel. In class 4 water colour is introduced.

Pencil work requires a drawing book containing white drawing paper, a decent pencil, a piece of good India rubber, and two or three sharp knives in the class. At present a great deal of the drawing is done in ordinary khatas, with cheap pencils having blunt points, and a wet finger is used as a substitute for India rubber.

Pastel work requires a book of coloured paper, one box of about 10 colours for each child, and a stock of the deeper colours in dur or demidur crayons for general use. These deeper colours are rather more expensive than the usual, costing from 1d. to 6d. a stick; they are unobtainable in India; they have to be obtained from London or direct from Le-France in Paris. Without these colours it is impossible to give a correct representation of many objects, e.g., the shadows on a leaf or fruit require a deep blue-green which is not contained in the standard boxes of the pupils.

To get good work in water colour it is absolutely necessary that the pupils should use good colours—and the right colours. It is usually considered best for the teacher to have the colours in tubes and to press out small dabs of the colours needed on to the pupil's palette. The ordinary paint boxes sold in stationery shops contain more colours than the child should use, and those of a very bad quality.

In short the pencils, pastels and colours must be supplied by the school; not by the individual. This is not only cheaper for the parent, but is also an essential condition of good work.

Krishnagar, the 27th June 1938.

The college reopens on the 4th July 1938 after the summer vacation.

1. The College teaches up to the B.A. and B.Sc. standards of the Calcutta University. There is provision for Honours teaching in Mathematics for the B.Sc. students and in English, Sanskrit and Mathematics for the B.A. students. The following combination of subjects is permitted:—

(i) I.A.—English, Bengali and any three of the following subjects:—History, Logic, Elements of Civics and Economics, Mathematics, Sanskrit or Persian.

V.B.—Candidates may also take up, if they so desire, one additional subject out of the last named group of five subjects, provided they have not already taken the subject. The additional subject so taken shall be considered as the optional subject under rule 8A of the University Regulations for the I.A. Examination.

(ii) I.Sc.—English, Bengali, Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry.

(iii) B.A.—English, Bengali and any two of the following subjects:—Mathematics, History, Economics, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Sanskrit or Persian.

(iv) B.Sc.—Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics.

2. Students who seek admission to the College must apply in the prescribed Admission Form which can be had from the College office on personal application or by sending a stamped cover. A limited number of girls are also admitted to the College.

3. Students who have passed the University Examinations creditably can be admitted to the College. Students who come with transfer certificates from other colleges can only be admitted if their attendance and progress in studies at the college where they last studied, are considered satisfactory. Plucked candidates are required to produce the "Admit Card" and the "Cross List."

4. Students who do not reside with parents or legal guardians must live in one of the College Hostels. Permission to live with local guardians can be granted only in exceptional cases.

5. Arrangements have been made to divide the students into groups and place them under the effective and intimate guardianship of their teachers. Any change of address must immediately be notified to the College office.

6. Students must obey the rules and discipline of the College including those of the College Union. Absence from College Examinations without leave is a breach of College discipline. No student can be promoted to a higher class or sent up for a University Examination unless he has appeared at College Examinations and has been regular in attendance.

7. Attendance at games or organised physical exercises under the guidance of the Physical Instructor is compulsory.

8. Hostels.—There are two hostels attached to the College—one for the Hindu students and another for the Muslim students. The messing charge in the Hindu Hostel is Rs. 10-8 per month (including the establishment and light charges). In case of a deficit, the amount spent in excess is shared equally by the boarders. In the Muhammadan Hostel the messing charge varies from Rs. 7 to Rs. 8 per month. The monthly seat rent is Rs. 2 in both the hostels. Two of the students belonging to the educationally backward classes (i.e., scheduled castes) can be given rent-free seats in the Hindu Hostel out of a grant received from the University of Calcutta. Students seeking admission to the hostels should apply to the Superintendents personally.

9. Students pay on admission to the hostel Rs. 3 as admission fee and Rs. 6 as caution money. The caution money is refunded only when the boarder finally leaves the hostel, provided all dues have been paid. But this money shall be forfeited to the hostel fund in the case of expulsion from the hostel. The health of the boarders has all along been satisfactory.

10. Fees.—(a) Students pay on admission to the College an admission fee equal to the tuition fee of the class for one month.

(b) They also pay an annual consolidated subscription of Rs. 5 for the College Union, viz., Rs. 2 for the Athletic Club, Re. 1 for the College Magazine, Re. 1 for the Common Room and Re. 1 for other activities of the Union. This subscription is payable at the time of admission and subsequently in the month of July every year.

(c) They further pay an annual fee of Re. 1 as printing charges.

(d) They also contribute a sum of annas 12 per year towards the Students' Aid Fund from which poor and needy students get occasional help in meeting their tuition fees. This amount is also payable in the month of July every year.

(e) Students whose names have not already been registered in the University, pay a registration fee of Rs. 2 (and money order commission of annas 2) as laid down in the University Regulations.

11. All students are also required to make a library deposit of Rs. 5 each and the I.Sc. students a laboratory deposit of Rs. 10 each, and the B.Sc. students a laboratory deposit of Rs. 15 each. The caution money is forfeited by Government if not withdrawn by the students within 5 years of the date of deposit.

12. (a) Monthly tuition fees are as follows:—for students of the I.A. Classes Rs. 6; for students of the B.A. and I.Sc. Classes Rs. 7; and for students of the B.Sc. Classes Rs. 8.

(b) Several free-studentships and stipends are available for poor but deserving students.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since 1912 when the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912, was passed, the progress and development of the co-operative movement in this Province has been large and manifold. The movement has travelled into a much wider field than was perhaps originally conceived. The number and variety of credit and non-credit societies have grown with surprising rapidity, while the movement has enlisted the active interest of the more advanced and educated sections of the people in the country who have proved their capacity for tackling the problems of collective marketing of agricultural commodities, of minor irrigation facilities, of redemption of prior debts, of improvement of agriculture and of housing accommodation in congested urban areas, etc. The inadequacy of the provisions contained in Act II of 1912 for meeting the demands of the movement in its present magnitude and for effectively controlling the working of the societies has caused the utmost difficulty, and the necessity of amending the present Act and replacing it by a more comprehensive one has been keenly felt for sometime.

In many cases the deterioration in the general condition of a society has been due to the misdemeanours of one or two influential office-bearers, the Registrar being powerless to intervene effectively. It is obviously unfair that the whole society should suffer for the faults of one or two individuals, and it is accordingly desirable that there should be some means of stopping such malpractices before it is too late and before the society's position is seriously damaged. One of the most serious drawbacks of the 1912 Act is that there is no penalty attached to acts of maladministration or to any failure to comply with the provisions of the Act or rules made by Government thereunder except the ultimate and drastic step of putting the society into liquidation. This omission has resulted in a great laxity in the management and administration of the societies, and even the most elementary business principles, viz., honesty, punctuality, maintenance of proper accounts, diligence in payment when due, have been disregarded by the office-bearers of the societies with impunity. The financial stability of the societies has been jeopardised owing to the inadequacy of the provisions restricting the borrowing by members of societies. Submission of false or inaccurate information by borrowing members regarding their assets and liabilities and the misuse of the loans taken from the societies have led to overfinancing and to wilful default in payment. The defects noticed during the audit or inspection of the societies have been more or less disregarded, and it is seldom that prompt steps have been taken to rectify them.

Adequate provisions have been made in the present Bill to guard against the above-mentioned abuses and to inflict punishment for wilful failure, wilful neglect or refusal to carry out the provisions of the Act and rules made thereunder, for wilful submission of false returns and disobedience of summons. The existence of the penal sections will stimulate business methods in the minds of co-operators and the provisions are based upon Parliament's Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1928, and also upon Acts of other provinces. Sufficient protection has, however, been provided against any unwarranted exercise of any of the summary powers by permitting appeal or review or revision in all such cases. At the same time, various statutory provisions have been made for encouraging a true co-operative spirit among the workers and members of societies, while facilities have been provided for enabling the societies to obtain State aid in suitable cases, and also for the speedy realisation of co-operative dues in a summary manner, when wilful defaults render such action necessary.

The Bill has been drafted specially to meet the requirements of this Province. Its important provisions may be briefly summarised as follows:—

The preamble has been recast so as to widen the scope of the movement for registering societies having as their object the promotion of the common interest of members in accordance with co-operative principles. Although co-operation is almost the only avenue of escape from poverty, its benefits are equally open to all who believe in its fundamental principles and are prepared to work in accordance with these for their economic improvement. There is no reason why co-operation should be restricted to poor persons only. Thus the expression "persons of limited means" in the preamble to the existing Act has been omitted.

Provisions have also been made (a) to delegate the powers of the Registrar to well managed financing Banks and Federations, (b) to obtain financial assistance from State directly or indirectly, (c) to improve the finances of the movement by suitable restrictions on the grant of loans, (d) to facilitate the collection of dues of co-operative societies by the summary process prescribed by the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913, (e) to prevent fraudulent disposal of property by a borrowing member pending dispute or liquidation, (f) to make audit more thorough and effective, (g) to ensure utilisation of the loan for the purpose for which it has been advanced, (h) to obtain accurate information regarding the assets and liabilities of the borrowing members as a safeguard against over-financing, (i) to reconstitute or to supersede a Committee of Management for persistent mismanagement, as an intermediate stage between normal working and liquidation in order to give the society an opportunity to improve its working, (j) to charge and surcharge for the liability disclosed by audit or inspection for acts done to the detriment of the interest of the Society, (k) to ensure rectification of defects noticed at audit or inspection, (l) to effect compromise between a co-operative society and its creditors, (m) to facilitate the working and expansion of the Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank by distraint of produce and foreclosure and sale mortgaged property, and (n) to bar effectively the jurisdiction of the Civil and Revenue Courts in matters relating to the administration of co-operative societies.

In short the Bill seeks to check abuses, inculcate a healthy sense of responsibility on the managing committees of co-operative societies, to improve the working of the present organisations and to ensure the soundness of future development.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 10.—Sub-clause (b) provides for conferment of all or any of the powers of the Registrar on any higher co-operative organisations (Central and Provincial Societies). If the movement develops on sound lines, the well-managed Central Societies may usefully be invested with many of the powers of the Registrar under the Act. The provision is mainly intended for an increasing devolution of authority to non-official agencies.

Clause 18.—With the growth and progress of Societies, the amendment of by-laws adopted at the time of formation and registration of Societies has often been found necessary. The suggestions of the Department, as also of more disinterested but less influential members, in this connection have generally been ignored by the Societies at the instance and through the influence of a section of interested members resulting in continued mismanagement and also in danger to public investments. The provision is intended to save a Society from liquidation which would be unavoidable unless there is a statutory obligation to adopt such by-laws.

Clause 25.—In all classes of Co-operative Societies the tendency to continue in the Committee is very marked and seems to have created a vested interest. Once a Committee is elected, the Registrar is powerless to proceed against this body and prevent them from acting as they like even if they show signs of incompetency or are found to be guilty of wilful neglect and mismanagement of the affairs of the Society concerned. Instances have occurred where a sitting Committee have deliberately postponed the holding of the General Meeting for 2 or 3 years in order to get round the existing Government rules. Instances are also numerous in which the Committee have wilfully or negligently disobeyed audit orders or executive instructions involving even statutory obligations. Such irregularities though culpable cannot be mended without the co-operation of the Committee and where such bodies are unreasonably obstinate the only remedy in the hands of the Registrar lies in liquidation. For cases where the financial condition of the Society does not warrant such drastic action, this alternative remedy is proposed, namely, reconstitution or supersession of the Committee.

An order under this clause is appealable to Government.

Clauses 37 and 38.—These provisions will enable Government to extend greater financial assistance to the Co-operative Societies directly or indirectly.

Clauses 39 and 24.—The accumulation of overdues has been to a large extent due to careless and unprincipled financing of the members by the Committee of Management particularly of the agricultural societies. Instances of injudicious financing beyond the paying capacity of the members or before their previous debts have been sufficiently recovered have been so common as to have attracted the notice of the Royal Commission on Agriculture as early as in 1928. Issue of loans have therefore been restricted and the members of the Committee under clause 24 made liable for illegal loan.

Clause 41.—This clause is intended as a precaution against abuses such as fraud, benami transactions, etc., for the detection or investigation of which information may be necessary. As the persons interested may refuse to furnish or may suppress the information required, this liability has been made a statutory obligation enforceable by a penalty.

Clause 44.—This clause is mainly intended to safeguard the investment made by a Land Mortgage Bank with its members. At the same time, the provision will help a Co-operative Society willing to clear off the entire debts of any members of the Society and retain all his properties free from encumbrances as security against his loan or for the safety of the Society as a whole.

Clause 45.—This clause is also intended mainly to safeguard the investments made by a Land Mortgage Bank against the mortgage of immovable property of its members. In the ordinary credit Society also, the provision will be useful in cases where the Society had taken mortgage of the land of its members as collateral security for the loans advanced to them.

Clause 51.—This clause will save some of the Central Banks whose overdue debts have enormously increased due to economic depression. As a matter of fact, such compromises have been effected in some of the Banks with the consent of the creditors. A legalised compromise of this nature will help the Bank to resume its business and to retrieve its financial position gradually without interference from any unreasonable creditors who may be unwilling to accept the majority decision.

Clause 54.—This clause is intended to put a stop to declaration of dividend or bonus by a Society on its nominally accrued profit and to allow such distribution only from the actual cash profit. The provision will prevent dissipation of capital which has weakened the financial solvency of many societies involving some real dangers to the investments of the public.

Clause 59.—It has often been found that members deliberately concealed the extent of their indebtedness and managed to obtain heavy loans beyond their repaying capacity and in excess of the total value of their assets. This clause will extend reasonable and adequate protection to all persons joining a Society with unlimited liability and will thus encourage really solvent and more influential people who are willing to join the rural co-operative credit movement for the common good of all but have hitherto fought shy of unlimited liability and its final implication.

Clause 60.—This clause is intended to check the utilisation of loan particularly by members of agricultural credit societies on purposes other than that for which it is granted. It is common experience that one of the main causes of default in repayment is that the loans taken by the members have not generally been utilised for any productive purpose; whereas a loan which is economically calculated according to the borrower's repaying capacity and which is properly applied to a productive purpose should not fail to supply automatically the source for timely repayment.

Clause 73.—Some Co-operative Societies are in the habit of keeping their accounts in arrears. This habit not only delays the audit but also facilitates temporary misappropriation. In many instances it has been found that the accounts have not been written up for several months together and when requested to bring the accounts up-to-date, the Society does it very leisurely. This state of affairs is extremely undesirable in a business concern and can hardly be permitted without serious risk to the members as well as to the creditors of the Society.

Clause 76.—Some Societies have frequently failed to take suitable action on defects reported at audit. Unless the defects pointed out at audit are rectified promptly and completely there always remains a danger to the Society and its members.

Clause 77.—A general desire has been expressed that supervisors, who are at present recruited, paid and controlled by each Central Bank independently, should be formed into a common service for all the Banks on a provincial basis to be administered by some central authority for purposes of recruitment, and transfer, etc. Sub-clauses (2) and (4) of this clause are intended to legalise the administration by Government of such a service for the purposes mentioned above should such a course be desired: these are merely enabling provisions, and if Central Banks resolve that the service should not be administered by Government, these provisions will not be called into operation.

Clause 89.—The present law for liquidation is that a liquidator is appointed after the registration of a Society has been cancelled. In the Bill, it is proposed to order winding up of a Society and to appoint a liquidator for the purpose without cancelling its registration. If it is found in the course of winding up that the Society has prospects of continuing to work as a business concern, the Registrar may cancel the order of winding up and allowed the Society to function again.

This provision will make it possible to reconstitute a bad Society after realising the dues of a few defaulting members through summary procedure. It will also facilitate previous attachment of the properties of bad members by a liquidator.

Clauses 90-116.—In this chapter special provisions are made to ensure satisfactory and successful working of Land Mortgage Banks. These Banks are empowered to require by a notice the creditors of a member to receive payment of their dues from the Bank, to realise the overdue instalment of a loan by distraint and sale of the produce of the mortgaged land including the standing crops thereon and to bring mortgaged property to sale on default of instalments without the intervention of the Court. In this connection the Registrar is empowered to appoint sale officers for the purposes of conducting sales and to appoint receivers when necessary. As the Government may guarantee the principal and the interest of the debentures to be floated for raising necessary capital for these Banks and advancing the same to the members at a very low rate of interest, the trustee and the financing Bank are empowered, in cases of default or when the mortgaged property is destroyed or the security is rendered insufficient to direct the Banks to take action against the members and in case of failure on the part of the Bank to comply with such directions, the trustee or the financing Bank are empowered to take necessary action themselves. Further, as a measure of safeguard against possible abuses, the officers of the Land Mortgage Banks and sale officers are debarred from taking part in the bid or to acquire any interest in properties mortgaged to a Bank. Provisions have also been made for protecting a mortgage from challenge on certain grounds in insolvency proceedings or by members of a joint Hindu family when the mortgage is executed by the manager. The mortgage is given priority in insolvency proceedings over other claims except Government revenue, wages and landlord's rent, etc.

Clause 119.—There has been a growing tendency among the indebted members of Societies particularly of agricultural Societies to transfer their properties, movable or immovable in order to defeat the execution of award as soon as disputes under Rule 22 of the existing Government rules are filed against them. This clever move on the part of debtor-members has rendered the process of summary recovery by means of award of arbitrators more or less ineffective. Unless, therefore, the powers for summary recovery are further supplemented by conferment of power on the arbitrator to direct conditional attachment of the property of the debtors the purpose of arbitration procedure stands in the danger of being defeated.

Clause 120.—The importance of this clause cannot be over-estimated. One of the most serious defects in the working of the credit Societies which to a very large extent has contributed to the financial deterioration of these Societies, is that a few office-bearers have appropriated large loans which they are unable to repay. The Panchayat Board which is formed of themselves is inactive in taking stringent action against the defaulting members. They are generally unwilling to file disputes against such members. The good members of the Societies have no influence or power to bring the defaulters to book. It is thus essentially necessary both for the improvement of the Societies as well as for protecting the interest of good members that some sort of summary power should be in the hands of the Registrar to realise the dues from the wilful defaulting members. There has been a persistent demand from Co-operative Societies for such provision. This provision will save a Society from liquidation as also the good members from penalty for the neglect of a few bad members.

Clause 121.—This clause provides for an imposition by the Registrar of a charge in respect of an item of expenditure disallowed as having been incurred contrary to the Act, Rules or by-laws or without sanction of a competent authority. Hitherto in the absence of a suitable provision in the Act or the rules it has not been possible to reimburse a Society for any loss or damage caused to it by any mischievous act of any person connected with the organisation or management of the Society. There have been several cases in which the Societies desired to file a dispute against the past committee of management or certain members thereof for loss of funds due to their negligence or misconduct. But it was held by competent legal opinion that no dispute for recovery of such loss could be filed under the existing rules. The clause does not seek to take away the privilege of the Society to sue any of its office-bearers for damage or loss but only provides for a summary procedure to compensate the Society for an illegal act of culpable negligence on the part of its office-bearers.

Clauses 122 and 123.—In these clauses provisions have been made to compel a person or a Society to comply with the provisions of the Act, Rules, and by-laws as also the directions of the Registrar in exercise of powers conferred on him under the Act, Rules, etc. The propriety of these provisions to carry out the purposes of the Act by an imposition of a penalty is self-evident. No law can be effective and complete without having penal provisions to enforce its administration. If for good management and sound development, the law makes certain provisions, it must, in order to make such provisions effective, insist on their specific performance through appropriate penalties.

Clause 127.—Liquidation proceedings are already excluded from the operation of the Civil Courts under the existing Act. This clause adds a bar against the jurisdiction of Civil or Revenue Courts in matters relating to disputes, registration of a Society or its by-laws and the dissolution of a Managing Committee and its administration by an executive officer. This will protect all proceedings under this Act from interference by such Courts by means of injunctions issued at the instance of unreasonable minorities or individuals and will give finality to the decisions in such proceedings.

Clauses 128 and 129.—Under these clauses provisions have been made for appeals by aggrieved parties as also protection has been given to the Societies and their members by provision for review or revision from adverse decisions or orders of the Registrar or any subordinate officers taken or passed in the exercise of any statutory functions delegated to them.

Clauses 130 and 131.—The offences have been made non-cognisable and triable only by a first class Magistrate, while an adequate safeguard against irresponsible prosecutions has been provided by requiring the permission of the Registrar before launching a prosecution. The existence of the penal sections will stimulate business methods in the minds of co-operators and the provisions are based upon the English Industrial and Provident Societies Act, and also other Indian Provincial Acts.

1. The Divisional Forest Officer does not bind himself to accept the highest or any offer for any lot or to give any reason for such non-acceptance.

2. The sale of any lot, the value of which exceeds Rs. 5,000 shall not be complete until confirmed by the Conservator of Forests, Bengal.

3. The purchaser whose offer is accepted by the officer holding the sale must deposit earnest money of Rs. 300 for each lot and in the event of the sale being confirmed the earnest money will be retained as part of the security deposit. If two or more lots be taken by the same purchaser, the Divisional Forest Officer may relax this condition in such individual case and to such an extent as he deems fit, subject to the proviso that in any case the minimum earnest money payable is Rs. 300. In the event of the sale not being confirmed, the earnest money will be returned.

4. A security deposit of 15 per cent. of the purchase-price must be deposited within 10 days of the confirmation of the sale. In the event of the security deposit being less than Rs. 300, the difference between the security and earnest money will be credited towards the first instalment.

5. Failure to complete the payment of security deposit by the prescribed date will render the purchaser liable to the forfeiture of his earnest money and failure to execute the agreement within one month of receiving the same will render the purchaser liable to the forfeiture of the security deposit.

6. The lot or lots so affected shall be resold by public auction at the discretion of the Divisional Forest Officer, and the purchaser shall be liable for any loss to Government on such resale.

7. Purchasers will be required to execute agreements in the printed form for outright sales (copies of which may be seen in the Divisional Forest Offices, Jalpaiguri, Buxa, Kurseong, Kalimpong and Darjeeling).

Bengal Regulations.

1805	XIII	The Cuttack Police Regulation, 1805.	In clause Fourth of section 4, for the word "clauses" the word "clause" shall be substituted.
1817	XII	The Bengal Patwaris Regulation, 1817.	(1) In section 30, for the word "sections" the word "section" shall be substituted. (2) In the proviso to section 33, for the word "sections" in the second place where it occurs, the word "section" shall be substituted.
1825	IX	The Bengal Land-revenue Settlement Regulation, 1825.	In clause First of section 5 for the figures and word "22 and 30" the word and figure "and 22" shall be substituted.

In clause Fourth the expression originally used was "clauses second and third" The words "and third" were repealed by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903). This amendment is a purely consequential drafting alteration following that repeal.

In section 30, and in the second place in the proviso to section 33, the expression originally used was "sections 26 and 27." The figure and word "26 and" were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1876 (XII of 1876). These proposed amendments are purely consequential.

This amendment is consequential on the omission of section 30 of Bengal Regulation II of 1819 by Ben. Act VII of 1862.

Local Acts of the Governor General of India in Council in force in the Province of Bengal.

1859	XI	The Bengal Land-revenue Sales Act, 1859.	In section 22, for the words "Bank of Bengal" the words "Reserve Bank of India" shall be substituted.
1885	VIII	The Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.	(1) In clause (iii) of sub-section (3) of section 1, for the figure "1884" the figure "1932" shall be substituted. (2) In section 18A, after the word "Act" the figure "1872" shall be inserted. (3) In clause (f) of section 148, for the words and figures "Part III of the Indian Post Office Act, 1866" the words and figures "Chapter VI of the Indian Post Office Act, 1898" shall be substituted.
1887	XII	The Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act, 1887.	In clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 23, for the words, figures and brackets "Bengal Regulation 5, 1799 (to limit the Interference of the Zila and city courts of Diwani Adalat in the Execution of Wills and Administration to the Estates of persons dying intestate)" the words and figure "the Bengal Wills and Intestacy Regulation, 1799" shall be substituted.

This amendment is necessary as the post-bills are at present issued by the Reserve Bank of India.

The first and third amendments are formal and are necessitated by the re-enactment of the Bengal Municipal Act in 1932, and the Indian Post Office Act in 1898.

The Second amendment corrects a printing mistake.

Unnecessary words have been omitted and instead of the year and number of the Act, the short title has been used for convenience of reference.

(2) In section 5, after the word "Procedure" the figure "1898," shall be inserted.	Amendment No. (1) is necessary because the word "said" in the expression "the said Act V of 1861" has no meaning on account of the repeal of section 1 of Ben. Act VII of 1869. Remarks.
(This column does not form part of the Bill.)

The Repeal of the words "the Board of Commissioners, or the Commissioner in Bihar and Benares" from section 15 by Act XII of 1876, makes the proposed repeal a formal consequential amendment.

This repeal is consequential on the omission of clause first of section 2 of this Regulation by Regulation IX of 1833.

The expression used in the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, is "this Act shall cease to have effect." It is necessary to repeal this Act formally.

This is consequential on amendment No. (2) (a) of this Act in the First Schedule to this Bill.

This repeal is consequential on the repeal of Regulation XX of 1817 by the Bengal Laws Act, 1914.

This is consequential on the repeal of the Bengal Police Regulation, 1817, by the Bengal Laws Act, 1914.

This Act has been repealed as it has lost practical application by virtue of the provisions of the Bengal Agricultural and Sanitary Improvement Act, 1920, and the Bengal Development Act, 1935. The 1920 Act repealed this Act with certain saving provisions, but that Act did not apply throughout Bengal. Hence the necessity of again formally repealing this spent enactment.
Amendment No. (1) :—
Section 3 is obsolete.

Amendment Nos. (2) and (6) :—These are consequential on the repeal of Chapter IIA of this Act by Bengal Act XI of 1934.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The preparation of a new edition of the Bengal Code has been started in the Bengal Legislative Department. For this purpose it is essential to pass a General Repealing and Amending Act in order to free the Code of obsolete, spent and redundant matters. This Repealing and Amending Bill has been confined rigidly and exclusively to alterations which are entirely free from controversy. Anything doubtful has been left unchanged.

Some of the repeals proposed in the Bill—particularly those of earlier date than the successive General Clauses Acts which provide generally for matters such as the interpretation of references to and the saving of appointments made and other things done under Acts superseded by other Acts—contain saving clauses. The present Bill contains in clause 4 a precautionary provision preserving the effect of those savings.

The reasons for the proposed amendments and repeals are explained in the remarks column (which does not form part of the Bill) against each.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF BENGAL, 1938.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1935-36, the area under jute in Bengal to which this forecast relates, represents some 85·9 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

The Preliminary forecast deals only with the estimates of area sown and the condition of the crop at the time of publication of the forecast. The estimates of area are based on information received through the Collectors from the Revenue staff; also from the Panchayets and Agricultural Officers.

Area sown in 1938.—In Bengal returns for the present season show a total area of 2,481,400 acres, an increase of 272,500 acres, or about 12·34 per cent. as compared with the revised figures for 1937.

• Character of the season.—Rainfall in February was favourable both for preparatory tillage and for early sowings in lowland tracts of East Bengal. In March and April, the rainfall was defective and although sowings continued slowly in some lowlying areas of East and North Bengal, there was practically no progress elsewhere. Rain was badly needed for the benefit of the young plants and for further sowings to proceed on. Occasional good showers from the end of April to the 1st week of May, however, facilitated sowings generally with the result that satisfactory progress was made. In West Bengal sowings commenced somewhat late owing to lack of rain but subsequent conditions were helpful for the operation. Heavy rainfall from the middle of May onwards which caused waterlogging of fields, has somewhat damaged the lowland and midland crops. In some districts a sudden rise of the rivers has necessitated premature harvesting and in one or two districts a small percentage has been destroyed. Alternate rain and sunshine after the middle of June, however, helped the growth and improved the prospects generally.

Present state of the crop.—Present condition of the crop may be rated as fair, on the whole.

Stock.—Collectors report that stocks in the hands of cultivators are very small.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BIHAR.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF BIHAR, 1938.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1935-36, the area under jute in Bihar to which this Forecast relates has represented some 6·5 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

The present forecast deals only with the estimated area sown. It gives also a general survey of prospects but makes no reference to the probable outturn either in percentage figures or in bales.

2. Acreage.—I estimate the area sown during the current and four preceding years, in round numbers, as follows.—

Year.				Acres.
1934	173,800*
1935	142,000
1936	463,600*
1937	445,000
1938	444,800

*Revised.

3. Weather conditions.—In March scanty showers fell in Purnea. There was no rain in the remaining jute districts. The fall was below the normal everywhere. In April light rain fell in all the jute districts, the fall was below the normal everywhere. In May moderate rain fell in all the jute-growing districts. The fall was above the normal everywhere. In June rain fell in all the jute districts. The fall was heavy in Purnea and moderate elsewhere. The weather conditions are reported to be favourable at the beginning in the important jute district of Purnea. Sowings were normal.

4. District returns.—Last year's area under jute has been finally estimated at 445,000 acres. The total area under jute this year is estimated by the District Officers in round numbers at 444,800 acres. The decrease in area in Purnea is due to sowings not yet completed while increase in Bhagalpur is due to changes in the course of the river Kosi.

5. Condition and prospects.—The condition of the crop is on the whole, fair.

6. General.—The quantity of jute which remains in the jute districts from the crops of 1937 is reported to be small.

The statement below compares the estimated area under jute in this province this year with the preliminary and final figures of last year:—

DEPARTMENT OF DEVELOPMENT, ORISSA.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF ORISSA, 1938.

The present forecast deals only with the estimated area sown. It gives also a general survey of prospects, but makes no reference to the probable outturn either in percentage figures or in bales.

2. Acreage.—The area sown during the current and the four preceding years is estimated in round numbers as follows:—

Year.				Acres.
1934	17,400
1935	17,200
1936	14,900
1937	15,300*

3. Weather condition.—In March and April there was very little rain in the Cuttack and Balasore districts. In May rainfall was well distributed and was above the normal in both the districts. In June, so far, both districts have received good rain, the fall being above the normal.

4. District returns.—The area under jute last year was finally estimated at 15,300 acres. The total area this year as estimated by the two District Officers comes to 11,500 acres. The decrease in area is reported to be due to want of rain in March and April, which hindered preparatory tillage. Sowing has not yet commenced in certain areas.

5. Condition and prospects.—It is too early to report about the condition of the crop as sowing has not been completed.

6. General.—Very little jute remains from the crop of 1937.

The statement below compares the estimated area under jute in the province this year with the preliminary and final figures of the last year:—

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ASSAM.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF ASSAM, 1938.

[NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1935-36, the area under jute in Assam represents some 5·7 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

1. Season.—The weather condition has not been generally satisfactory for the cultivation and growth of the crop due to scanty rain at the time of sowing and continuous rainfall afterwards, specially almost in all the main jute-growing districts. The present condition of the crop is also, on the whole, not quite fair and so the outturn is anticipated to be worse than last year.

2. Area sown.—The total area under jute as estimated by the Deputy Commissioners is 217,700 acres against 219,100 acres (revised) of last year. There is increase in area in Sylhet, Darrang and Lakhimpur while decrease in Kamrup and Nowgong. The net decrease over last year's actual figure is 1,400 acres.

3. Stock.—According to the reports of the Deputy Commissioners very little jute remains in stock from the crop of last year.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 6th July 1933.

Summary.—Excepting light showers at places specially in West Bengal the rainfall was generally moderate to heavy. More rain is needed in some of the western districts. Harvesting of autumn crops continues. Transplantation of winter paddy has commenced in places. Heavy rainfall and early rise of rivers have caused some damages to low land crops in some North and East Bengal districts. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 0·30 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

11. (1) On the receipt of an application under section 10 and on payment in the prescribed manner of the licence duty specified in the schedule, the Registrar may, subject to the provisions of section 13 and after making such summary inquiry as he deems necessary, enter the name of the applicant in the register for the year and grant the applicant a licence in such form and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply to the case of a money-lender required under sub-section (2) of section 12 to produce a licence :

Provided that—

(a) the money-lender shall also pay all arrears of licence duty and penalty, if any, directed by the Court to be paid, and

(b) the Registrar may enter the name of the applicant in the register, and grant him a licence for the year or years in respect of which he has been required to produce a licence.

(3) (i) If at any time during a year for which a licence has been granted, a Registrar has reason to believe—

(a) that a money-lender has engaged in the business of money-lending in any area for which he has not been granted a licence, or

(b) in respect of a money-lender to whom a second or third class Calcutta licence has been granted, that such money-lender has invested more than ten thousand rupees or five thousand rupees respectively during the year, he may, after summary inquiry, determine the amount or additional amount, if any, of licence duty which the money-lender is liable, in accordance with the rates specified in the schedule, to pay and may recover the same from the money-lender together with such penalty as he thinks fit, not exceeding three times the amount of licence duty found to be payable :

Provided that if the Registrar has reason to believe that the money-lender has been engaged in the business of money-lending in an area for which he is not competent to grant a licence, he shall forward the case to the prescribed Registrar who shall deal with the case in the manner provided in this sub-section.

(ii) When the sums payable under clause (i) have been paid, the Registrar may, unless he has reasons for passing an order under section 13, enter the name of the money-lender in the appropriate register and grant the money-lender a licence, or in cases referred to in sub-clause (b) of clause (i), correct the register and convert the licence.

(2) If during the trial of a suit to which this Act applies, the Court finds that the money-lender had not held such licence, the Court may, on the application of the money-lender, stay the hearing of the suit and require the money-lender within three months or within such further period as the Court may from time to time see fit to grant, to produce a licence on payment to the Registrar of all arrears of licence duty payable by him in accordance with the rates specified in the schedule for the years commencing with the year during which he began his money-lending business or with the date notified under section 8, whichever is later, during which he has continued money-lending business, together with such penalty as the Court thinks fit, not exceeding three times the amount of the said arrears of licence duty.

(3) If the money-lender fails to produce the licence within the period allowed under sub-section (2), the Court shall dismiss the suit and inform in the prescribed manner the Registrar of the appropriate area : if the money-lender produces the licence within such period, the Court shall proceed to hear the suit.

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply to a claim for a set off by or on behalf of a money-lender.

(5) In this section and in sub-section (2) of section 11, the expression " money-lender " includes an assignee of a money-lender, if the Court is satisfied that the assignment was made for the purposes of avoiding the payment of licence duty and penalty which may be ordered to be paid under this section, provided that in lieu of a licence such assignee shall be required to produce a receipt of payment issued by the Registrar of all arrears of licence duty and penalty, if any, ordered to be paid under this section, and the Registrar shall, under sub-section (2) of section 11, grant to such assignee a receipt of payment in lieu of the licence referred to therein.

(2) Such Court may direct that any person making an application under this section which is frivolous or vexatious shall pay to the money-lender against whom such application has been made compensation of such amount as the Court considers equitable.

to cancel or
licence.

15. (1) A Competent Court in a proceeding under this Act or a Court trying a suit to which this Act applies or a Court passing an order of conviction upon a money-lender for an offence under this Act, if satisfied that the money-lender has committed such contravention of the provisions of this Act or of the rules made thereunder as, in its opinion, makes him unfit to carry on the business of money-lending—

(a) may order all licences held by such money-lender to be suspended for such period as the Court may think fit, or to be cancelled,

(b) may also declare such money-lender or any person responsible for the management of his money-lending business or both disqualified from holding a licence of any description for such period as the Court may think fit, and

(c) shall cause the particulars of the conviction, if any, and of any order passed by the Court under this sub-section to be endorsed on the licence or licences held by the money-lender or by any other person affected by such order :

Provided that where the licences held by a money-lender are suspended or cancelled or a money-lender is disqualified from holding a licence under this sub-section, he may appeal against such order to the Court to which an appeal ordinarily lies from the decision of the Court passing the order ; and the Court which passed the order or the Court of appeal may, if it thinks fit, stay the operation of the order under this sub-section pending the disposal of the appeal :

Provided further that where the Court of appeal sets aside or varies an order passed under this sub-section, it shall order that any endorsements made in pursuance thereof upon a licence held by a money-lender shall be erased or modified.

(2) The substance of any order passed under sub-section (1) or the provisos thereto shall be sent forthwith in the prescribed form by the Court passing the order to the Provincial Registrar and to the Registrar by whom the licence affected was granted for entry in the register and for such circulation to other Registrars as may be prescribed.

(3) Any licence required by a Court for endorsement under sub-section (1) shall be produced in such manner and at such time as the Court may direct by the person by whom it is held, and any person who without reasonable cause makes default herein shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each day of the period during which the default continues.

(4) Powers conferred on a Court under sub-section (1) may be exercised by a Court in appeal or in revision.

(5) The Provincial Government may at any time, on application in the prescribed form accompanied by the prescribed fee, remove a disqualification declared under this section or otherwise modify such declaration, having regard to the time which has elapsed since the declaration and the circumstances under which it was made.

Procedure in suits relating to loans by money-lenders.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, in any suit to which this Act applies—

(a) a Court shall, before deciding the claim on merits, frame and decide the issue whether the money-lender has complied with the provisions of sections 20 and 21; and

(b) if the Court finds that the provisions of either of the said sections have not been so complied with, it may, if the plaintiff's claim is established either wholly or in part, disallow the whole or any portion of the interest found due as may, in the circumstances of the case, appear reasonable to the Court, and may also disallow costs, or in computing the amount of interest due upon the loan, the Court may exclude any period for which the money-lender omitted to comply with the provisions of either of the said sections:

Provided that if the money-lender has, after the time specified in the said sections, given the receipt or furnished the statement, as the case may be, and if he satisfies the Court that he had sufficient cause for not doing so earlier, the Court may include any such period in computing the interest.

Explanation. A money-lender who has given a receipt or furnished a statement in the prescribed form and manner shall be held to have complied with the provisions of section 20 or section 21, as the case may be, in spite of any errors and omissions in such receipt or statement if the Court finds that such errors and omissions are neither material nor made fraudulently.

but in every such case the money-lender shall be liable to indemnify the borrower or any other person who is prejudiced by virtue of this section, and nothing in this proviso shall render valid an agreement or security in favour of, or apply to proceedings instituted by, an assignee or holder for value who is himself a money-lender.

The Bengal Money-lenders Bill, 1938.(Chapter VII.—Miscellaneous.—The Schedule.)THE SCHEDULE.(See sections 9, 11 and 12.)

District One rupee multiplied by the number of police-stations in the district.
Mufassil One hundred rupees.
Calcutta, first class	.. Seventy-five rupees.

Calcutta, third class	.. Ten rupees.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bill has been framed to supplement the provisions of the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1933. It has been framed as a separate Act. The Act of 1933 does not apply to Calcutta within the limits of the Ordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court, on the other hand it applies to all loans made by Banks. As regards the latter point the additional sub-section (3) added to section 10 of the Act of 1933 by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, may be seen. The powers of the Provincial Legislature are to some extent limited by the terms of Articles 28 and 38 of List I of Schedule VII of the Government of India Act, 1935; and the limitation extends not only to prevent fresh legislation on the matters covered by those articles, but also to prevent amendment of such parts of the Act of 1933 as relate to them. For this reason no attempt has been made to amend the Act of 1933, but a self-contained Bill has been framed, confined to such matters as it is believed are within the competence of the Provincial Legislature, and a general provision has been made in clause 42 of the Bill to exclude from the operation of the Act of 1933 any loan or any transaction connected with a loan which is subject to this Bill.

2. By the definition of "loan", certain lending transactions have been excluded from the operation of the Bill; for example, loans to or by Governments, or by certain societies including co-operative societies and also loans by banks and Insurance concerns. Loan, however, includes loans in kind. A "lender" has been defined as anyone who advances a loan, while a "money-lender" is defined so as to limit the term to the class of what may be called professional lenders. Chapters III, IV and V make provision for strict regulation of this class, requiring them to be licensed and to keep certain accounts and furnish certain information to borrowers, machinery being provided for the courts to enforce compliance with, or, in some instances, to penalize non-compliance with those provisions.

3. Chapter VI contains provisions regulating rates of interest on all loans, including the abolition of compound interest, as such; by the definition of "suits to which this Act applies" certain of these provisions are limited in their operation to loans and agreements made after the Act comes into force, the definition being similar to that in section 2, sub-section (3) of the Usurious Loans Act, 1918. Provision has also been made in this Chapter to limit the amount of charges and other incidental expenses in relation to loans.

4. Chapter VII contains a provision for orders for instalments in the case of all decrees in respect of loans, whether passed before or after the commencement of the Act. It has also provision similar to that in section 3 of the Usurious Loans Act, 1918, for re-opening transactions that offend against the provisions of the Act. There is provision for a borrower to move the courts for taking accounts, and for the lender to convert any declaration so obtained into a decree on payment of the necessary court-fee. There is provision similar to that in section 9 of the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1933, for deposit of dues in court. There is penal provision against any one who takes a document which does not state the true facts as to the transaction of loan to which it relates, and also against molestation of borrowers, and also against defaults in complying with the provisions of the Act.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 1.—The date of commencement has been left to notification by Government because a considerable amount of rule-making (vide clause 41) requiring previous publication will be necessary to provide for the working of the Act.

Clause 2.—The definitions calling for comment have been dealt with in the Statement of Objects and Reasons.

Clauses 3 and 4.—These read with sub-clause (15) of clause 2 specify the courts which shall deal with licencing matters and regulate their procedure and provide for appeals. As the area in a subdivision does not always coincide with the jurisdiction of a munsifi, and as it may also be desirable to limit jurisdiction to the more senior munsifs, it has been left for the Provincial Government to empower munsifs to hear matters in relation to subdivisinal or police-station licences.

Clauses 5 and 8.—It will not be possible for the licensing provisions of the Act to operate immediately it comes into force; in clause 8 it is provided that these provisions shall operate from a date not less than six months after the commencement of the Act, and the licence year will then run accordingly from the date when these provisions begin to operate. It is necessary to leave time for the licensing machinery to be developed and for money-lenders to obtain their licences. These clauses have been framed accordingly.

Clauses 6, 7 and 9 to 11.—These contain provision for the machinery of Registration and licencing; licencing is to be by areas, fees being charged as in the schedule. The Registrar may make such summary enquiry as he deems necessary, and in clause 11, sub-clause (4), is given certain powers of summoning witnesses, etc. He is also given powers where he finds that a money-lender has been operating without a licence or without a proper licence to enforce the taking out of such licence and of imposing a penalty.

Clause 12.—This ensures that the courts shall insist that a money-lender was duly licenced at the time he made the loan in respect of which he is suing, and gives at the same time power to the court to enforce payment of licence fee and opportunity to the money-lender to make good his default where such has occurred. Provision is also made that default in the year of the loan can only be remedied by payment of all previous outstandings, and there is also provision for a penalty. Sub-clause (5) has been framed with a view to stop a possible loophole, viz., avoidance of the requirements of the Act by assignment of the debt.

Clause 13.—This lays down the grounds for refusal of a licence; an appeal to a competent court as specified in chapter II is provided. Provision is made for removal by the Provincial Government of the disqualification on conviction of certain criminal offences which is provided for in sub-clause (1) (d).

Clauses 14 and 15.—These give powers to courts to suspend and cancel licences in certain circumstances, and also give rights of appeal against such orders, and make provision for circulation of information.

Clause 19.—This provides a penalty against concealment of facts in making application for a licence.

Clause 20.—This provides the minimum requirement as regards accounts to be kept by a money-lender, and that he shall furnish a statement in prescribed form as to a loan, a receipt for each payment, and take proper steps when repayment is made in full.

Clause 21.—This provides for a yearly statement of accounts to be furnished by a money-lender, and for furnishing a statement when required by the borrower on payment of a fee.

Clause 23.—This provides the sanction for enforcement of the provisions of clauses 20 and 21.

Clause 24.—This exempts companies from the provisions of chapter IV.

Clauses 25 and 26.—These relate to assignment of debts and make further provision to ensure that the objects of the Act shall not be defeated by assignment, while at the same time giving protection to bona fide assignees. Vide also clause 12(5).

Clause 27.—This clause (like several others in the present Bill) is based on similar provision made in the (English) Money-lenders Act, 1926 (4 and 5 Geo. c. 59 section 9), and limits the rights of a money-lender in insolvency and similar proceedings, postponing his right to more than five per cent. per annum interest till after the claims of other creditors have been satisfied.

Clause 28.—This repeats the “damdupat” provision in sections 4 and 6 of the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1933. It applies to loans advanced whether before or after the commencement of the Act, and in respect of such loans, made before the commencement of the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1933, as are also covered by the present Act, it removes the discretion given to the courts in section 4 of that Act to make allowance where they were satisfied that the money-lender had reasonable grounds for not enforcing his claim earlier. As that Act has already been in force for nearly five years, it is no longer necessary to provide for the exercise of any such discretion. The provision will apply to suits whether instituted before or after the commencement of the Act.

Clause 29.—By this clause rates of interest have been limited to twenty-five and fifteen per cent. in the case of loans in kind and to twelve and eight per cent. in the case of other loans, for unsecured and secured loans, respectively.

Clause 30.—This abolishes compound interest and is based on similar provision in the (English) Money-lenders Act, 1926. Allowance is, however, made for recovery of simple interest on any instalment of interest in default, the rate being governed by the provisions of clause 29.

Clause 31.—This has been introduced to make clear how calculation is to be made of the equivalent rate of interest in respect of a loan in kind.

Clause 32.—This makes provision to limit charges and incidental expenses.

Clause 33.—This provides for orders of instalments to be made in respect of decrees relating to loans made before or after the Act, sub-clause (2) has the effect of providing for an appeal.

Clause 34.—This repeats section 3 of the Usurious Loans Act with special reference to the provisions of this Bill. Sub-clause (2) repeats section 4 of that Act and applies the provisions of the Bill to certain insolvency proceedings.

Clause 35.—This makes provision for the borrower to obtain accounts through the courts, and, where any sum is found to be payable by the borrower, enables the lender to convert the declaration of the court into a decree on payment of proper court-fee. Provision is also made for the procedure to be followed and for the effect of the decision as res judicata.

Clauses 36 to 42.—Such of these clauses as call for comment have been referred to in the Statement of Objects and Reasons.

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

A certificate of service, either personal or otherwise, shall be deemed to be conclusive proof of the fact of such service.

21. At the time fixed for the hearing, the Revising Authority shall hold a summary inquiry into the claim or objection preferred and shall record his decision. He shall also, after considering any verbal or written objections that may be preferred, decide on any application made by the Registering Authority for corrections to the roll. For the purpose of the inquiry the roll as published under rule 13 shall be presumed to be correct and complete until the contrary has been proved. (3) Provision may be made for the sale of copies of the roll to the public.

24. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules any person may apply to the Registering Authority for the constituency concerned for the amendment of any electoral roll for the time being in force, and the Registering Authority on receipt of such application shall forward it to the District Magistrate. The District Magistrate may, at any time after any such application has been received in respect of an electoral roll, or part of an electoral roll, by notification published in the Gazette and also at the places at which such electoral roll or part of such electoral roll was published under rule 13, direct the preparation of a list of amendments thereto, and all the provisions of these rules shall apply in the case of every such list in like manner as they apply in the case of electoral rolls:

Provided that where any such application is made for the correction of an existing entry in the electoral roll and the Registering Authority is satisfied after personally hearing the applicant that the entry relates to the applicant and is erroneous or defective in any particular, he may amend the roll or cause it to be amended accordingly:

Provided further that where any such application is made for amendment of the electoral roll by the inclusion of the name of the applicant, the Registering Authority shall, on payment by the applicant of a fee of Rs. 10, make, subject to the general or special order of the District Magistrate, such inquiry as he thinks fit and shall, if satisfied as to the validity of the applicant's claim, amend the roll or cause it to be amended accordingly.

27. If any question arises as to the interpretation of these rules otherwise than in connection with an election inquiry held under the Act or any rule made thereunder the question shall be referred for the decision of the Provincial Government and its decision shall be final.

1. In this part, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) “an election agent” means the person appointed under these rules by a candidate as his agent for an election;
- (b) “Attesting Officer” means such officer as the District Magistrate may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint to perform all or any of the duties of the Attesting Officer under these rules, and includes any officer deputed for the time being to perform his duties by the Attesting Officer, by an order in writing of which a copy shall be sent to the Returning Officer;
- (c) “Gazette” means the Calcutta Gazette;
- (d) “the Act” means the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885; and
- (e) the expression “Returning Officer” has the same meaning as the meaning assigned to the said expression in the rules in Part I and includes any person when performing any duty or function which such person is authorised to perform under sub-rule (1) of rule 4 of the said rules.

Nominations and general procedure at elections.

2. (1) Any person may be nominated as a candidate for election to a seat in any constituency if he is qualified for election to that seat under the Act or any rule made thereunder.

(2) The District Magistrate shall fix for each constituency:—

- (a) a date, not later than the fourteenth day after the date of the notification calling upon the constituency to elect a member, on or before which nominations are to be made;
- (b) a further date, not later than the seventh day after the first mentioned date, for the scrutiny of nominations; and
- (c) a further date or dates on which a poll shall, if necessary, be taken;

and the dates so fixed shall be notified in the Gazette by the District Magistrate.

(3) On the issue of a notification under sub-rule (2) it shall be the duty of the Returning Officer to give public notice of the intended election in form I annexed to these rules in such language or languages as he thinks fit. The said notice shall be published in such manner and in such places within the constituencies as the Returning Officer considers necessary.

(4) On or before the date fixed under clause (a) of sub-rule (2), each candidate shall, either in person or by his proposer or seconder, between the hours of eleven o'clock in the forenoon and three o'clock in the afternoon, deliver to the Returning Officer or to such other person as is authorised in this behalf under rule 4 of the rules in Part I a nomination paper completed in the form specified in Schedule A and subscribed by the candidate himself as assenting to the nomination and by two persons referred to in sub-rule (5) as proposer and seconder.

(5) Any person whose name is included in the electoral roll of the constituency and who is not subject to any disabilities mentioned in section 15A of the Act may subscribe, as proposer or seconder, as many nomination papers as there are vacancies to be filled but no more.

(6) Every nomination paper delivered under sub-rule (4) shall be accompanied by a declaration in writing subscribed by the candidate that the candidate has appointed or does thereby appoint as his election agent for the election either himself or some other person who is not subject to any disabilities mentioned in section 15A of the Act and who shall be named in the declaration; and no candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless such declaration is delivered along with the nomination paper.

(7) The nomination paper shall be accompanied by another declaration that the candidate has selected a symbol from the list specified in Schedule B to these rules; no candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless such declaration is delivered along with the nomination papers.

(8) Any nomination paper which is not received before 3 o'clock in the afternoon on the date fixed under clause (a) of sub-rule (2) shall be rejected.

(9) On the presentation of a nomination paper, the Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the names and numbers on the electoral roll of the candidate and his proposer and seconder as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the electoral roll. Where necessary he shall direct that the former be amended so as to be in accordance with the latter.

It shall be also competent for the Returning Officer to alter or amend any entry in the nomination paper presented to him with a view to ensuring accurate and adequate publication under sub-rule (10) of the names of candidates and of persons who have subscribed the nomination paper as proposer and seconder.

(10) The Returning Officer or other person authorised shall, on receiving a nomination paper under sub-rule (4), inform the person or persons delivering the same, of the date, time and place fixed for the scrutiny of nominations and shall enter in the nomination paper its serial number, and shall sign thereon a certificate stating the date on which and the hour at which the nomination paper has been delivered to him: and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, cause to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office a notice of the nomination containing descriptions similar to those contained in the nomination paper, both of the candidate and of the persons who have subscribed the nomination paper as proposer and seconder.

(11) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature within the time referred to in sub-section (2) of section 16A of the Act by notice in form II annexed to these rules subscribed by him and assented to by the proposer and seconder and delivered to the Returning Officer or other person authorised either by such candidate in person or by his proposer or seconder before 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the last date for such withdrawal, and a candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be re-nominated as a candidate for the same election :

Provided that if the last day for the delivery of notice of withdrawal of candidature under this sub-rule is a public holiday within the meaning of section 25 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, or has been notified by the Governor as a day to be observed as a holiday in Government offices, the notice of withdrawal of candidature shall be considered as having been delivered in due time if it is delivered on the next succeeding day which is neither such a public holiday nor a day so notified.

(12) The Returning Officer or other person authorised shall, on receiving a notice of withdrawal under sub-rule (11) as soon as may be, cause a notice of the withdrawal to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office.

3. (1) At the time of delivery of a nomination paper under sub-rule (4) of rule 2 each candidate shall enclose with the nomination paper a Government treasury receipt (chalan) showing that a deposit of the amount prescribed under section 16A of the Act has been made by him with the Magistrate of the district; and no candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless such deposit has been made and treasury receipt has been enclosed with the nomination paper.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (3) of section 16A of the Act the number of votes polled shall be deemed to be the number of ballot papers, other than rejected ballot papers, counted.

(3) The deposit made by a candidate, whether such candidate is elected or not, shall, if it is not forfeited under sub-section (3) of section 16A of the Act, be returned to such candidate after the publication of the result of the election in the Gazette :

Provided that, if a candidate is duly nominated at a general election in more than one constituency, not more than one of the deposits made by him shall be returned, and the remainder shall be forfeited to the District Fund.

4. (1) On the date fixed for the scrutiny of nominations under sub-rule (2) of rule 2, the candidates, their election agents, one proposer and one seconder of each candidate, and one other person duly authorised in writing by each candidate, but no other person, may attend at such time and place as the Returning Officer may appoint, and the Returning Officer shall give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates which have been delivered within the time and in the manner laid down in rule 2.

(2) (a) The Returning Officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made to any nomination, and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, refuse any nomination on any of the following grounds:—

- (i) that the candidate is not qualified for election to fill the seat under the Act or under any rule made thereunder; or
- (ii) that the candidate is disqualified for being elected to the seat under section 15A or any other provision of the Act or under any rule made under the Act; or
- (iii) that a proposer or seconder is disqualified from subscribing a nomination paper under sub-rule (5) of rule 2; or
- (iv) that there has been any failure to comply with any of the provisions of rule 2 or rule 3; or
- (v) that the candidate is not identical with the person whose number or name on the electoral roll is given in the nomination paper as the number or name of such candidate; or
- (vi) that any proposer or seconder is not identical with the person whose number or name on the electoral roll is given in the nomination paper as the number or name of such proposer or seconder; or
- (vii) that the signature of the candidate or any proposer or seconder is not genuine or has been obtained by fraud.

(b) For the purposes of this rule—

- (i) the production of any certified copy of an entry made in the electoral roll of any constituency shall be conclusive evidence of the right of any elector named in that entry to stand for election or to subscribe a nomination paper as the case may be, unless it is proved that the candidate is disqualified under the Act or any rule made thereunder or that the proposer or seconder, as the case may be, is disqualified under sub-rule (5) of rule 2; and
- (ii) where a person has subscribed whether as proposer or seconder a larger number of nomination papers than there are vacancies to be filled, those of the papers so subscribed which have been first received, up to the number of vacancies to be filled, shall be deemed to be valid.

(c) Nothing contained in sub-clause (iii), sub-clause (iv), sub-clause (v), sub-clause (vi) or sub-clause (vii) of clause (a) shall be deemed to authorise the refusal of a nomination of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(d) The Returning Officer shall not refuse any nomination paper on the ground of a slight technical defect such as the wrong spelling of a name.

(3) (a) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same and, if the nomination paper is rejected, shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection.

(b) The scrutiny shall be completed on the day fixed in this behalf under clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 2 and no adjournment of the proceedings shall be allowed.

(4) (a) On completion of the scrutiny of nominations, the Returning Officer shall forthwith examine symbols selected by the candidates and if such symbols are found to conflict with each other, he shall allocate the symbols in conformity as far as possible with the wishes of the candidates and if necessary by lot, and his decision in this respect shall be final. Each candidate or his election agent shall at the same time be informed of the symbol assigned to such candidate and shall be given a specimen thereof. He shall then prepare a list of valid nominations indicating therein the symbol assigned to each candidate.

The candidates whose names are included in the list shall be deemed to be registered as candidates duly nominated under these rules, from the date of publication of the list.

(b) The Returning Officer shall cause the list of valid nominations prepared by him under clause (a) to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office, and in such other places as he thinks fit.

(c) If a candidate registered as a duly nominated candidate under these rules withdraws his candidature in the manner specified in sub-rule (11) of rule 2 after the publication of the list referred to in clause (b), the Returning Officer shall forthwith cause a written notice thereof to be published in the manner prescribed for the publication of such list in the said clause and shall amend the list accordingly.

5. If a candidate who has been duly nominated under these rules dies after the date fixed for the scrutiny of nomination and before the commencement of the poll, the Returning Officer or other authorised person referred to in sub-rule (4) of rule 2 shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the District Magistrate and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced anew in all respects as if for a new election :

Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a candidate whose nomination had been valid at the time of the countermanding of the poll.

6. (1) If the number of candidates who are duly nominated and who have not withdrawn their candidature in the manner and within the time specified in sub-rule (11) of rule 2 exceeds that of the seats to be filled, the Returning Officer shall forthwith publish in the Gazette, and in such other manner as the District Magistrate may direct, and in such places in the constituency as the Returning Officer may consider necessary, a list in form III annexed to these rules containing the names in alphabetical order and addresses of the candidates as given in the nomination papers and the symbol, assigned to each candidate, and a poll shall be taken.

(2) If the number of such candidates is equal to the number of seats to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all such candidates to be duly elected to fill those seats.

(3) If the number of such candidates is less than the number of seats to be filled the Returning Officer shall declare all such candidates, if any, to be elected to fill the seats, and the District Magistrate shall, by notification in the Gazette, call upon the constituency to elect a person or persons, as the case may be, within such date as may be appointed in this behalf by the Provincial Government by notification under sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Act.

(4) At elections in every constituency where a poll is taken votes shall be given by ballot in the manner provided in these rules and no votes shall be received by proxy.

(5) Votes shall be counted by, or under the supervision of, the Returning Officer, and each candidate, and either his election agent, or one representative of each candidate authorised in writing by the candidate shall have a right to be present at the time of counting.

(6) When the counting of the votes has been completed, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the candidate or candidates elected.

(7) The Returning Officer shall without delay report the result of the election to the District Magistrate or to such officer as the Provincial Government may direct, and the name or names of the candidate or candidates elected shall be published by the Provincial Government in the Gazette.

Special procedure at election in constituencies in which seats are reserved for members of the minority community.

7. A candidate of the minority community duly nominated for election to a seat reserved in a constituency shall be deemed as a candidate for election both to the reserved seat as well as to the non-reserved seat in that constituency and vice versa, viz., a candidate of the minority community duly nominated for election to the non-reserved seat in a constituency in which a seat is reserved for that community shall be deemed as a candidate for election both to the non-reserved as well as to the reserved seat.

The election to such reserved and non-reserved seat shall be determined at the poll which shall be taken in that constituency on the date or dates fixed under sub-rule (2) of rule 2:

Provided that a separate ballot box shall be allotted to each such candidate for election to the reserved as well as the non-reserved seat.

8. (1) The provisions of this rule shall apply in relation to any election in a constituency where the seats to be filled include a seat or seats reserved for members of the minority community.

(2) If the number of candidates qualified for election to a seat or seats so reserved is equal to the number of seats so reserved all those candidates shall be declared to be elected to fill the reserved seat or reserved seats and a poll shall only be taken, if necessary, for filling any seat or seats not filled under this sub-rule.

(3) If the number of candidates qualified for election to a seat or seats so reserved is greater than the number of seats so reserved, then, the Returning Officer shall show separately in the list to be published under sub-rule (1) of rule 6 the candidates for the reserved seat or seats and for the non-reserved seat or seats and shall, after the poll, complete the counting of votes for the reserved seat or seats first, and declare one or those of the qualified candidates to whom the largest number of valid votes for the reserved seat or seats has been given to be elected to fill the reserved seat or seats.

(4) If the number of candidates qualified for election to a seat or seats so reserved is less than the number of seats so reserved, all these candidates, if any, shall be declared to be elected, to fill the seats so reserved and the District Magistrate shall by notification in the Gazette call on the constituency to elect a person or persons, as the case may be, within such date as may be appointed in this behalf by the Provincial Government by notification under sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Act.

Voting.

9. (1) The District Magistrate shall fix the hour at which the poll shall commence and the hour at which it shall close on the date or dates fixed for the poll under clause (c) of sub-rule (2) of rule 2. The hours of polling shall ordinarily be uniform within each constituency but the District Magistrate may in the case of any constituency specify different hours of polling within different areas. The District Magistrate shall publish the hours fixed for polling in such manner as he may think fit.

(2) The Returning Officer may, either for the constituency as a whole or for a particular polling station of the constituency, for sufficient cause and with the previous consent of the District Magistrate postpone the date fixed for the poll to a date to be fixed by the District Magistrate, or for sufficient cause and with the previous consent of the District Magistrate extend the hour fixed under sub-rule (1) at which the poll shall close.

10. (1) The Returning Officer shall select for each constituency as many polling stations as he thinks necessary and shall publish, in such manner as the District Magistrate may direct, a list showing the polling stations so selected, and the polling areas for which they have respectively been selected.

(2) The Returning Officer shall appoint a presiding officer for each polling station and such other person or persons (hereinafter referred to as polling officer or officers) to assist the presiding officer as he thinks necessary:

Provided that if a polling officer is absent from the polling station the presiding officer may appoint any person who is present at the polling station to be the polling officer during the absence of the former officer and inform the Returning Officer accordingly.

(3) A polling officer may, if so directed by the presiding officer, perform all or any of the duties assigned to a presiding officer under these rules.

(4) If the presiding officer, owing to illness or other unavoidable cause, is obliged to absent himself from the polling station, his duties shall be performed by such polling officer as has been previously authorised by the Returning Officer to perform such duties during any such absence.

11. (1) The presiding officer shall keep order at the polling station, shall see that the election is fairly conducted, shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted at one time, and shall exclude all other persons except—

- (a) the polling officer or officers, the candidates, and one agent of each candidate (hereinafter referred to as the polling agent) appointed in writing by the candidate, and authorised in this behalf by the Returning Officer,
- (b) the police officer or officers or other public servants on duty, and
- (c) the persons referred to in rule 18.

(2) At least seven days before the date fixed for the poll every candidate shall forward to the Returning Officer of the constituency the name of the polling agent appointed in writing by the candidate:

• Provided that, in the case of the revocation of appointment of, or the death of a polling agent, the Returning Officer may allow the appointment of another agent in his place at any time before the poll is taken.

(3) There shall be at least two police constables or chaukidars on duty either inside or outside the polling station, as the presiding officer shall direct, who shall under the orders of the presiding officer assist in expediting and regulating the passage of electors inside the polling station or maintain order either inside or outside the polling station.

(4) The presiding officer shall close the polling station at the hour fixed for the close of the poll under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 9, as the case may be, so as to prevent the admission thereto of any elector after that hour, provided that all electors present at the polling station before it is so closed shall be entitled to have their votes recorded.

(5) In emergencies such as a disturbance of the public peace or the intervention of floods the presiding officer for any polling station may, with the previous approval of the Returning Officer, close the poll at such station and announce an adjournment of the poll to a date to be notified later. The Returning Officer shall immediately report the circumstances to the District Magistrate and the District Magistrate shall, as soon as may be, appoint a date on which the poll shall recommence at such polling station. The hour at which the poll shall commence and the hour at which the poll shall close on such date shall be fixed by the District Magistrate. The date so appointed and the hours so fixed shall be notified in such manner as the District Magistrate may direct.

12. If any person misconducts himself at the polling station or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer or the polling officer performing the duties of the presiding officer, he may immediately by order of the presiding officer or such polling officer, be removed from the polling station by any police officer or by any other person authorised in writing by the presiding officer or such polling officer to remove him; and the person so removed shall not unless with the permission of the presiding officer or such polling officer be allowed again to enter the polling station during the day:

Provided that this power shall not be exercised so as to prevent any elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling station from having an opportunity of voting at such station.

13. Each polling station shall be furnished with such number of compartments, in which electors can record their votes screened from observation, as the Returning Officer thinks necessary.

14. (1) In the case of a constituency where there is no seat reserved for a member of the minority community, the Returning Officer shall provide at each polling station one ballot box for each of the candidates in each polling compartment thereof. In the case of a constituency where there is a seat so reserved, the Returning Officer shall provide at each polling station one ballot box for each candidate for each seat, whether reserved or non-reserved, in each compartment thereof and the ballot boxes so provided for the candidates for the reserved seat shall be kept apart from those provided for the candidates for the non-reserved seat, within a separate enclosure in the polling compartment. Every ballot box provided under this sub-rule shall be so placed in the compartment that a voter can insert his ballot paper therein without being observed by any other person.

(2) The symbol assigned to each such candidate shall be printed and pasted on the ballot boxes of the respective candidates. The ballot box of each candidate shall also be clearly marked with his name in English, Bengali and/or any other vernacular language as may be decided by the Returning Officer:

Provided that in the case of a candidate for a seat reserved for a member of the minority community the symbol and name to be affixed under this sub-rule on the ballot box allotted for the reserved seat to such candidate shall be printed on a paper of the same colour as that selected under the proviso to sub-rule (2) of rule 22 for the ballot paper to be used at the election to such reserved seat.

(3) Outside and inside each such polling station there shall be displayed on boards to be provided for the purpose by the Returning Officer, in bold and clear print, the name of each candidate in English, Bengali and/or any other vernacular language as may be decided by the Returning Officer, the name of the symbol with which his ballot box is marked and the symbol itself:

Provided that in the case of a constituency in which there is a seat reserved for a member of the minority community, the names of the candidates for the reserved seat together with their symbols and the names of such symbols shall be displayed separately on such boards in bold and clear print of the same colour as that of the ballot papers to be used at the election to such reserved seats.

(4) The Returning Officer shall also provide at each polling station instruments for stamping the official mark on ballot papers, as many ballot papers as may be necessary, copies of the electoral roll or of such part thereof as contains the names of the voters entitled to vote at such station.

(5) The official mark shall be kept secret and a period of not less than seven years shall intervene between the use of the same official mark at elections for the same constituency.

15. Every ballot box shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be introduced therein, but cannot be withdrawn therefrom, without the box being unlocked. The presiding officer at any polling station, immediately before the commencement of the poll, shall show each ballot box to be used at the poll to such persons as may be present in such station, so that they may see that it is empty, and he shall then lock it up and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal, and shall keep it so locked and sealed.

16. (1) The voter on entering the polling station, shall first approach the person in charge of the electoral roll who shall ascertain the voter's name, address and such other particulars as appear on the roll, and having checked these with the roll, call out the number, name and description of the voter as printed. He shall then place against the number of the voter in the roll a short horizontal line to denote that the voter has received a ballot paper. No other mark shall be made on the roll.

(2) On the voter's name being called out the person in charge of the ballot paper shall enter the name of the polling station, the distinctive letter or number of the polling station and the serial number of the voter, the name of the union board or choukidari union to which the voter belongs and which is included in the electoral areas of the constituency, the voters in respect of which are entitled to vote at such polling station, on the counterfoil of the ballot paper. He shall then detach the ballot paper from the counterfoil and stamping it with the official mark deliver it to the voter.

(3) In deciding the right of a person to obtain a ballot paper under this rule the presiding officer at any polling station may interpret an entry in the electoral roll so as to overlook merely clerical or printing errors but shall record his reasons for doing so, and the interpretation he had adopted, on the counterfoil of the ballot paper issued to such person.

(4) At an election in a constituency in which a seat is reserved for a member of the minority community, the voter shall be given a ballot paper for election to the reserved seat and another for election to the non-reserved seat, and the polling officer shall explain to the voter that he shall place the former ballot paper in one of the ballot boxes of candidates for the reserved seat, and the latter in one of the ballot boxes of candidates for the non-reserved seat.

17. At every polling station a Panchayat of the choukidari union, or the President or a member or officer of the union board, included within the electoral area of the constituency, the voters in respect of which are entitled to vote at such polling station, or any other person whom the presiding officer considers suitable shall, as far as practicable, be present from the commencement of the poll and shall sit in close proximity to the polling officer in charge of the electoral roll and shall assist him in identifying the voters calling his attention to any case of impersonation or misrepresentation when the matter shall at once be referred to the presiding officer.

18. (1) The voter, on receiving the ballot paper or papers, shall show the official mark thereon to the presiding officer or to the polling officer performing the duties of the presiding officer, and forthwith proceed into the polling compartment where he shall put his ballot paper or papers into the ballot box or boxes of the candidate or candidates for whom he desires to vote. Every voter shall vote without undue delay and shall quit the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper or papers into the ballot box or boxes.

(2) The presiding officer may, at any time while a poll is proceeding, enter any polling compartment and may take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that the boxes remain ready for the reception of ballot papers, and that no voter delays unduly in any such compartment and that not more than one voter is in any such compartment at a time. The presiding officer may also see that no voter resorts to any malpractices within the polling compartment.

19. If any voter, owing to illiteracy or infirmity, is unable to read the symbols on a ballot box the presiding officer shall put the ballot paper into the ballot box according to the direction of the voter.

20. At any time before a ballot paper is delivered to a voter the presiding officer or the polling officer may of his own accord, if he has reason to doubt the identity of the voter or his right to vote at such station, and shall, if so required by a candidate or polling agent, put to the voter the following questions:—

- "
- (1) Are you the person enrolled as follows (reading the whole entry from the electoral roll)? and
 - (2) Have you already voted at the present election in this constituency?
 - (3) Have you already voted at this general election in any other constituency in the district?

and the voter shall not be supplied with a ballot paper if he refuses to answer any one of the questions and unless he answers the first question in the affirmative, the second question in the negative, and, at a general election, the third question also in the negative.

21. (1) The ballot paper shall be in form IV annexed to these rules and shall be printed in such language as the District Magistrate may direct.

(2) Every polling station shall have a distinctive letter or number allotted to it. The serial number and the name of the constituency shall be printed on every ballot paper and its counterfoil. There shall be also shown on the counterfoil of each ballot paper entries relating to the particulars mentioned in sub-rule (2) of rule 16 which shall be filled in by the person in charge of the ballot paper in accordance with the provisions of the said sub-rule:

Provided that if in a constituency a seat is reserved for the minority community, the ballot papers to be used at the election to such reserved seat shall be of a colour different from that of the other ballot papers.

22. If a person representing himself to be a particular voter named on the electoral roll applies for a ballot paper or papers, as the case may be, after another person has voted as such voter, the applicant shall, after duly answering such questions as the presiding officer may ask, be entitled to receive a ballot paper. Such ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as a "tendered ballot paper") shall be in form V annexed to these rules, and, instead of being put into the ballot box, shall be given to the presiding officer who shall endorse it with the name of the candidate for whom such person desires to vote and also with the name of the voter, his number on the electoral roll and the name of the electoral area to which the roll relates. It shall be set aside in a separate packet and shall not be counted by the Returning Officer. The name of the constituency, the name of the voter and his serial number in the electoral roll and the name and the distinctive letter or the number of the polling station to which the roll relates shall be entered in a list in form VI annexed to these rules, which shall bear the heading "Tendered votes list." The person tendering such ballot paper shall sign his name and address thereon or affix his thumb impression against the entry in that list.

23. (1) If any polling agent or a Panchayet of a choukidari union or the President or a member or an officer of a union board or any person whom the presiding officer considers suitable declares and undertakes to prove, or if the presiding officer for any reason is clearly of opinion, that any person by applying for a ballot paper has committed the offence of personation, the presiding officer shall require such person to enter in the list of challenged votes (which shall be in form VII annexed to these rules) his name and address, or if he is unable to write, to affix his thumb impression thereto. If such person refuses to comply with such requisition he shall not be permitted to vote, but if he does so comply he shall be allowed to vote, after he has been warned of the penalty of personation, provided that he answers the questions mentioned in rule 20 in the manner laid down therein.

(2) The presiding officer shall in every case, whether or not the person is allowed to vote, make a note of the circumstances in the list of challenged votes.

24. A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot conveniently be used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the presiding officer and satisfying him of the inadvertence, obtain another ballot paper in place of the spoilt paper and the latter shall, together with its counterfoil, be marked as cancelled by the presiding officer.

25. (1) A presiding officer, polling officer or polling agent or public servant, who being a voter of any constituency is duly authorised or appointed for duty at a polling station at which he is not entitled to vote, may apply to the Returning Officer of the constituency for a certificate entitling him to vote at that polling station but at no other. On the production of such certificate he shall be allowed to vote at that polling station.

(2) Application for such certificate shall be made to the Returning Officer of the constituency of which he is a voter in form VIII annexed to these rules on or before a date to be fixed in this behalf by the District Magistrate. The certificate shall be in form IX annexed to these rules.

26. (1) A person in possession of a certificate issued under rule 26 shall deliver the certificate to the presiding officer who shall thereupon issue to the person a ballot paper or papers as the case may be, in the same manner as to any other voter:

Provided that the person in charge of the ballot paper shall, under sub-rule (2) of rule 16, enter on the counterfoil of each such ballot paper the name of the polling station at which the vote is recorded, the name of the constituency and the polling station at which the voter would otherwise have been entitled to vote, the serial number of the voter in the electoral roll of that constituency and the name of the union board or chaukidari union which is included in the electoral area to which the voter belongs.

(2) Ballot papers issued under sub-rule (1) shall be dealt with in the following manner:—

- (a) If the polling station at which the person is authorised or appointed for duty is in the same constituency as the one in which he is entitled to vote, then, subject to the proviso to sub-rule (1), the provisions contained in rules 16 and 18 shall apply. The certificate delivered under sub-rule (1) shall be filed by the presiding officer.
- (b) If the polling station at which the person is authorised or appointed for duty is not in the same constituency as the one in which he is entitled to vote, then the presiding officer shall along with the ballot paper or papers return to the person the certificate delivered under sub-rule (1) and issue to him as many envelopes as there are candidates for the different seats in the constituency in which he is entitled to vote, each envelope having on its outside the symbol or the name of the symbol assigned to the respective candidate written, with instructions similar to those contained in sub-rule (4) of rule 16. The person shall then go inside the polling compartment and place the ballot paper or papers in the envelope or envelopes according to his choice, close the envelopes and enclose them and the certificate aforesaid in a cover to be supplied to him by the presiding officer and then hand the cover over to the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall, as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, despatch the cover to the Returning Officer concerned.

27. The presiding officer of each polling station, as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, shall, in the presence of any candidates or polling agents who may be present, make up into separate parcels and seal with his own seal and the seals of such candidates or polling agents as may desire to affix their seals—

- (1) each ballot box in use at each station unopened but with the key attached and the slit in the lid sealed up;
- (2) the unused ballot papers;
- (3) the tendered ballot papers;
- (4) the spoilt ballot papers;
- (5) the marked copy of the electoral roll and any certificates filed by the presiding officer under rule 26;
- (6) Counterfoils of the ballot papers;
- (7) the tendered votes list; and
- (8) the list of challenged votes;

and shall deliver such packets or cause them to be delivered to the Returning Officer.

28. The packets shall be accompanied by a statement in form X made by the presiding officer, showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him and accounting for them under the heads of ballot papers issued, unused, spoilt and tendered ballot papers and ballot papers dealt with under rule 26.

Counting of votes.

29. (1) The District Magistrate shall appoint a date (which shall be as soon as practicable after the close of the poll), for the counting of votes. The Returning Officer shall fix the place and time at which the votes shall be counted on the date so appointed and shall give notice of such date, time and place, in writing to all candidates and election agents.

(2) If, at the time appointed, all the ballot boxes have not been received by the Returning Officer, or if from any other unavoidable cause he is unable to proceed with the counting of votes, he shall with the previous consent of the District Magistrate postpone the counting to some other time and date appointed by the District Magistrate, and shall give notice thereof in writing to the candidates and election agents.

30. (1) No person shall be allowed to be present at the counting of the votes except the Returning Officer and such persons as he may appoint to assist him in counting the votes, and such other persons as have a right to be present under sub-rule (5) of rule 6.

(2) No person shall be appointed to assist in counting the votes, who has been employed by or on behalf of any candidate for any purpose whatsoever connected with the election.

31. On the day and at the time appointed under rule 29 the Returning Officer shall proceed as follows:—

(a) All the ballot boxes allotted to a particular candidate for a particular seat shall be separated from those allotted to any other candidate or to that candidate for any other seat and numbered and placed together, and the counting of all the ballot papers contained in the boxes allotted to the same candidate for the same seat shall be completed before the counting of the ballot papers contained in the boxes allotted to any other candidate or to that candidate for any other seat is commenced. If there is a seat reserved for a member of the minority community in the constituency, the counting of ballot papers contained in the boxes allotted to candidates for the reserved seat shall be completed before the counting of ballot papers contained in the boxes allotted to candidates for the non-reserved seat is commenced. The order as between the candidates in which the counting of votes shall proceed shall be the alphabetical order of the candidates' surnames. In case of dispute the decision of the Returning Officer shall be final. The Returning Officer or a person authorised by him shall, in the presence of the candidates or their agents or representatives as may be present, open each box and after taking out the ballot papers therefrom shall stamp each ballot paper with the name of the candidate to whom the box in which the ballot papers were contained was allotted. He shall then distribute such papers in convenient bundles to persons appointed to assist in the counting of votes.

- (b) When the ballot papers have been so distributed but not before the Returning Officer shall allow the candidates and their election agents, or representatives duly authorised under sub-rule (5) of rule 6 or either of them as may be present reasonable opportunity to inspect, without handling the ballot papers, and shall on every ballot paper which is rejected endorse the word "rejected". If any candidate or his agent or representative present questions the correctness of the rejection, he shall also record on the ballot paper the grounds for the rejection.
- (c) The Returning Officer shall, as far as practicable, proceed continuously with the counting of the votes, and shall, during any necessary intervals during which the counting has to be suspended, place the ballot papers, packets and other documents relating to the election under his own seal and the seals of such candidates, or election agents as may desire to affix them, and shall cause adequate precautions to be taken for their custody.
- (d) After the counting of ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes for each seat has been completed the Returning Officer shall record the number of ballot papers contained in the ballot boxes allotted to each candidate for such seat separately in a statement and shall seal in a separate packet all the ballot papers in support of each candidate.

32. (1) When the counting of votes has been completed, the Returning Officer shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2) and of rule 34, forthwith declare the candidate, to whom the largest number of valid votes has been given, to be elected :

Provided that upon the application of any candidate, or his election agent or his representative duly authorised under sub-rule (5) of rule 6 a recount shall be made before the Returning Officer makes the declaration, but the Returning Officer may reject any such application as may appear to him to be frivolous recording at the same time the grounds for such rejection.

(2) Where a poll has been taken in a constituency in which a seat is reserved for a member of the minority community, the Returning Officer shall first, after the counting of votes for such reserved seat has been completed, out of the total number of candidates for such seat declare elected to such reserved seat in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1), the candidate for such seat to whom the largest number of valid votes has been given, and then shall, after the counting of votes for the non-reserved seat has been completed, out of the total number of candidates for such seat declare elected to such non-reserved seat, in accordance with the provisions of the said sub-rule, the candidate for such seat to whom the largest number of valid votes has been given :

Provided that if after the declaration of the result of election to the reserved seats under this sub-rule, it is found on the completion of the counting of votes for the non-reserved seats that any of the candidates declared elected to a reserved seat has also polled the largest number of valid votes in respect of the non-reserved seat, the Returning Officer shall not declare him elected to the non-reserved seat but shall proceed to determine the result of the election to the non-reserved seats as if no votes have been recorded for such candidate for the non-reserved seat.

33. If, when a poll has been taken at an election, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, one additional vote shall be given by the Returning Officer to the candidate, or as the case may be, the candidates, selected by lot drawn in the presence of the Returning Officer in such manner as he may determine.

34. (1) A ballot paper shall be rejected if—

- (a) it does not contain the official mark referred to in sub-rule (2) of rule 16;
- (b) it bears any mark by which the voter can be identified;
- (c) in the case where it is despatched in a cover under clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 26 to the Returning Officer, the cover does not contain the certificate issued under rule 25 to the voter whose vote is recorded on such ballot paper;
- (d) a ballot paper intended for election to a reserved seat is found in a ballot box of a candidate for a non-reserved seat, or vice versa.

(2) The decision of the Returning Officer as to the validity of a ballot paper shall be final subject only to reversal on an election petition claiming the seat.

35. The Returning Officer shall not open the sealed packets of the tendered votes, the marked copy of the electoral roll or the counter-foils of the ballot papers. He shall verify the statements submitted by the presiding officers under rule 28 by comparing them with the statement prepared under clause (d) of rule 31 and with the number of counted votes and rejected ballot papers, the unused ballot papers in his possession and the tendered votes list, shall then reclose and reseal each packet which has been opened by him, and shall record on each packet a description of its contents and the date of the election to which it refers.

36. The Returning Officer shall then prepare and certify a return in Form XI setting forth—

- (a) the names of the candidates for whom valid votes have been given;
- (b) the number of valid votes given for each candidate;
- (c) the number of votes declared invalid;
- (d) the number of tendered votes given;
- (e) the result of the verification referred to in rule 36; and
- (f) the names of the candidates elected;

and shall permit any candidate or his election agent or his representative duly authorized under sub-rule (5) of rule 6 to take a copy of or an extract from such return.

37. (1) The Returning Officer shall, after reporting the result of the election under rule 6 forward the return to the District Magistrate.

(2) With the exception of the papers relating to election mentioned in rule 46 all papers relating to the election shall be kept by the Returning Officer in his own custody.

Provided that if the Returning Officer is not himself the Subdivisional Magistrate, he shall forward all such papers to the Subdivisional Magistrate.

(3) The papers relating to the election mentioned in rule 46 shall be disposed of by the Returning Officer in the manner set out in the said rule and shall be forwarded by him direct to the authority mentioned therein for safe custody.

38. (1) While in the custody of the Returning Officer or the Sub-divisional Magistrate, the packets of ballot papers, whether counted, rejected or tendered and of the counterfoils thereof shall not be opened or produced except under the order of the District Magistrate or of a competent court or by the authority appointed to hold an inquiry in respect of an election. All other papers relating to the election shall be open to public inspection subject to such conditions and payment of such fee, if any, as the District Magistrate may direct.

(2) Copies of returns by the Returning Officer shall be furnished by the District Magistrate on payment of a fee of Rs. 2 for each copy.

39. The packets of ballot papers and of the counterfoils thereof referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 38 shall be retained for a period of one year and shall thereafter be destroyed subject to any direction to the contrary made by the District Magistrate, or by a competent court or by the authority appointed to hold an enquiry in respect of an election.

40. No person in the employment or pay of the District Board shall directly or indirectly engage in canvassing for votes or otherwise assist in the election of any candidates otherwise than by giving his own vote. Any breach of this rule will render him liable to dismissal.

41. All costs incurred in the preparation and printing of the electoral roll, the publication of notices, the holding of elections or taking any other necessary action under these rules, shall be payable from the District Fund.

Vacation of seats and notification of casual vacancies.

42. (1) If a person is elected to more than one seat on the Board, he shall, by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the District Magistrate within seven days from the date of the declaration of the result of the election under rule 6(6), or, where such declaration has been made on different dates, within seven days from the latest of such dates, choose one of the seats to which he has been elected and the choice shall be conclusive.

(2) When any choice has been made under sub-rule (1), the seat or seats which such person has not chosen shall thereupon become vacant.

(3) If such person does not make the choice referred to in sub-rule (2), the election of such person to all the seats shall become void.

43. When the seat of a member becomes vacant or is declared vacant, or the election of a member becomes void or is declared void, the District Magistrate shall by notification in the Gazette, call upon the constituency concerned to elect a person, for the purpose of filling the vacancy so caused, within such date as may be fixed in this behalf by the District Magistrate and specified in the notification and these rules shall apply, as far as may be, to the procedure for the election of a member to fill such vacancy.

General election.

44. (1) A general election shall be held before the expiration of the term of the District Board or before the expiration of the period of its supersession, if any, or where an order, if any, for the reconstitution of the district board has been passed under the proviso to section 131 of the Act, in order that a new District Board may be constituted.

(2) For the purpose of reconstituting the Board under the Act in due time, on the expiration of its term, or on the expiration of the period of its supersession, if any, or on an order, if any, for its reconstitution having been passed, the District Magistrate shall, by a notification in the Gazette, call upon every constituency in the district including the constituencies in which any seat or seats are reserved for members of the minority community to elect a member or members in accordance with these rules within such date as may be fixed in this behalf by the District Magistrate and specified in such notification: *

Provided that the said notification may be issued at any time not being more than four months prior to the date on which the term of the Board would expire in the ordinary course of events or the period of supersession of the Board, if any, would expire.

45. As soon as may be after the expiration of the time fixed for the election of members at any general election, the names of the members elected for the various constituencies at such election shall, together with the names or official designation of appointed members, if any, be published in the Gazette.

Custody and preservation of election papers.

46. (1) The papers mentioned in the first column of Schedule C hereto annexed shall be kept in the custody mentioned in the second column thereof for the period specified in the third column thereof, unless their retention for a longer period is otherwise ordered by competent authority.

(2) The public shall have a right to inspect the election papers mentioned in Schedule C and to get attested copies thereof on payment of the fees laid down in the Bengal Records Manual, 1917.

Special provisions.

47. If any difficulty arises as to the holding of any election under the provisions of these rules, or of the Act, or of any order or other rule made under the Act, or of any Act of the Provincial Legislature, the Provincial Government may by order do anything not inconsistent with such provisions which appears to it to be necessary for the proper holding of the election.

48. If any question arises as to the interpretation of these rules otherwise than in connection with an election inquiry held under the Act or any rule made thereunder, the question shall be referred for the decision of the Provincial Government and its decision shall be final.

49. Subject to the provisions of section 18B of the Act relating to the decision of election disputes, all decisions given by the Returning Officers under the powers conferred on them by these rules shall be final.

THE BENGAL TENANCY (TEMPORARY PROVISIONS)
BILL, 1938.

A
BILL

to make certain temporary provisions affecting the transfer of • agricultural property.

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue in force the provisions of the Bengal Tenancy Ordinance, 1938 ;

Ben. Ord.
No. I of 1938.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Tenancy (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1938.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law—

(a) the period commencing the 31st May 1938 and ending on such date as the Provincial Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in that behalf shall not, in relation to the registration of instruments of transfer to which the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 26C of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 apply, be taken into consideration in computing any time prescribed by or under any law within which a document shall be presented for registration, and

VIII of 1885.

(b) during the said period—

(i) a Court shall not, on the ground of the failure to deposit the landlord's transfer fee and the prescribed cost of transmission thereof, dismiss an application for probate or letters of administration to which the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 26C of the said Act apply, and

(ii) a Court or Revenue-officer shall not, in a matter to which the provisions of section 26E of the said Act apply, make an order under sub-section (3) of that section.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Tenancy Ordinance, 1938 was promulgated under section 88(1) of the Government of India Act, 1935 with a view to give relief to the persons who have executed documents and are awaiting the passing of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1938 so as to avoid the payment of landlord's transfer fees. As the provisions of the Ordinance will automatically expire about the 9th September next, i.e., 6 weeks after the re-assembling of the legislature and as it is difficult to forecast the date by which the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1938 will have become law, this Bill aims at continuing the same provisions that have been temporarily enacted by the Ordinance.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 67211.L.A.—19th July 1938.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Maternity Benefit Bill, 1937, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Maternity Benefit Bill, [1937.] 1938.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Assembly to which the Bengal Maternity Benefit Bill, 1937, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 30th September 1937, have the honour to submit this our report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us annexed. All matter recommended to be omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square bracket and all new matter recommended to be inserted has been underlined.

2. The Bill was published in English in the Calcutta Gazette of the 19th August 1937.

3. We do not consider that the Bill has been so altered by our recommendation as to require republication.

4. The Committee met for the first time on the 1st March 1938 and concluded their sittings on the 29th March 1938.

5. The changes made in the Bill are as follows:—

Clause 1.—Sub-clause (3) has been modified to avoid any possible complication resultant on partial exclusion.

Clause 2.—The definition of “child” has been added as a new sub-clause and the other sub-clauses have been re-numbered.

Clause 4.—The new words have been inserted to make the intention clear.

Clause 5 (1) (a).—We have inserted these words to avoid conflicting claims from disputed legal representatives.

Clause 6 (1) and (2).—The amendments are consequential upon the changes made in clause 5 (1) (a).

Clause 9 (2).—We consider it desirable to allow, at the discretion of the Magistrate, a compensation to the woman concerned, out of the fine realised by the prosecution.

Clause 11 and new clause 11A.—We think it advisable to provide for an appeal against the decision of the Inspector of Factories to the Labour Commissioner whose decision would be final.

Clause 12.—The change is purely verbal to make the intention unambiguous.

Clause 13.—This amendment is consequential upon the changes made in clause 11, and the addition of new clause 11A.

We recommend that the Bill as reported on by us be passed.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Sibnath Banerjee, M.L.A.

The Bill has been much improved as a result of the discussions in the Select Committee, but there are certain points regarding which amendments are necessary so that the women workers of Bengal may draw the maximum benefit from the Bill. So I am signing the report of the Select Committee with this minute of dissent.

At the very outset I must make it clear that the scope of the Bill itself is very limited. The stated object of the Bill is "to regulate the employment of women working in factories and for certain periods, etc." and so the women working in factories only will be benefited by this Bill.

Thousands of women workers employed in municipalities, hospitals, hotels, educational institutions or other commercial institutions are excluded from the scope of the Bill and so are the thousands of women in plantations, tea gardens are excluded as none of these can be included amongst factory workers. The object of the Bill should be so changed as to include all women working as nurses, teachers, clerks, or scavengers, etc.

The word "Employer" should be defined as "any institution or person who employs three or more women workers" and then only the Bill will justify its name, viz., the Bengal Maternity Benefit Bill; else with such restricted scope, it is a misnomer. It is urgent that this change in the scope of the Bill should be made as early as possible.

Clause 2.—Sub-clause (c) excludes seasonal factories and thus thousands of workers in Rice Mills and Sugar Mills, etc., will be excluded. I suggest that this portion, viz., "but does not include a seasonal factory" be deleted.

Clause 3.—Sub-clause (1) gives benefit for 4 weeks after delivery. I wanted to give benefit for 6 weeks before and 6 weeks after delivery and had pressed very much particularly for making the period of benefit after delivery 6 weeks. I feel this should be done but I do not press this amendment in the expectation of full co-operation of the employers in giving effect to the provisions of the Bill.

Clause 4 fixes the amount of benefit to annas eight minimum per day. I feel that the minimum should be a rupee a day, for a person cannot live normally on less than Rs. 30 a month and before and after delivery the needs are much greater and the cost of looking after the new born baby should also be taken into consideration. Still, considering all circumstances I do not press for Re. 1 and propose as a compromise the following. Delete the word "eight" and substitute "twelve".

In the proviso to sub-clause (1) I feel the word "six" should be substituted in place of "nine" months so that bona fide women workers will be entitled to maternity benefits after they work for six months, but I do not press this amendment. But to make sure that occasional absence would not be counted as discontinuity of service the following words should be added at the end of the proviso, but occasional absence of periods not exceeding three weeks at a time would not stand as a bar to benefits under this Act.

Clause 5.—In sub-clause (3) in the proviso, the words "six months" should be substituted by "one year". This is absolutely necessary, otherwise many women workers will be deprived of their due benefit due to their ignorance and illiteracy.

Clause 7.—Sub-clause (2) (a) gives certain rights to pregnant women workers against dismissal, but the wording "Notice of dismissal given without sufficient cause" is very vague and so I propose the deletion of these words and substitution by "notice of dismissal without very grave reasons".

The word "three" should be substituted by "six" to ensure that no employer sacks a woman worker to avoid payment of maternity benefit.

Clause 8 gives very drastic punishment for working during maternity leave. As clause 10 also deals with similar offence I feel, that if the punishment be restricted to a maximum fine of Rs. 10, the end of justice will be amply served. So I propose the deletion of "forfeit her right to the payment of maternity benefit under this Act" and substitution of the clause "be liable to a fine not exceeding rupees ten" in its place.

Clause 11A allows a period of thirty days only for appeal and I propose the substitution of the word "thirty" by "sixty". The reasons are obvious. It is to be done in the interest of the women workers though both the parties will get its benefit.

Clause 14.—I propose the addition of the letter "s" after "local vernacular" as there are several vernaculars and the abstract of the provisions should be printed in Bengali and Hindusthani (both in Nagri and Urdu script). There are places specially Jute Mills where this should be done also in Oria and Telegu.

Minute of dissent by Mrs. Hasina Murshed, M.L.A.

In spite of the fact that some of my suggestions with regard to the amendment of clause 9 have been accepted by the Select Committee, I still feel that I cannot sign the Report without submitting this note of dissent.

At the meeting of the Select Committee, I submitted that in line 2 of sub-clause (1) of clause 3, the words "four weeks" should be substituted by "six weeks",—consequential changes being made in clauses 4 and 5 of the Bill. Also that the words "nine months" should be substituted for the words "six months" in the penultimate line of the proviso to sub-clause (1) to clause 4 of the original Bill. I do not, however, press these amendments at this stage. With regard to clause 11, I had suggested at the Committee Meeting that the clause should be so amended as to allow the woman an independent right of access to the law Court without the intervention of any other officer. In view, however, of the amendments already embodied in clause 11 and in view of the new clause 11A, I do not press my original amendment, although I am still convinced that the amendment which I had suggested would have given the woman greater facilities than those that will accrue to her under the amendment now made.

I feel, however, that in view of clause 8 of the Bill, clause 10 should be completely deleted, for it will be seen that the effect of both clauses 8 and 10 would be to inflict a double punishment on the woman.

Minute of dissent by Miss Mira Datta Gupta, M.L.A.

I desire to record a minute of dissent from the Report of the Select Committee as follows:—

1. Assuming that it is intended to benefit expectant mothers under the Bill on grounds of humanity and further on grounds of maintaining their efficiency at work, I would have liked the period of benefit extended to a total of 12 weeks instead of 8 weeks as provided in the Bill, that is to say, 6 weeks before delivery and 6 weeks after delivery. In any event, an extension of 2 weeks making altogether 6 weeks after delivery is not only desirable but essential on grounds of health of the mother. It is well known that there are countries in Europe where the working mother is entitled to maternity benefit for a period of two months before and two months after delivery.

2. The proviso to clause 4(1) of the Bill leaves a loop-hole which may conveniently be taken advantage of by employers. The qualifying period in the proviso is fixed at nine months. The employer may give notice of dismissal to an expectant mother at say the seventh month of pregnancy and thus disentitle her altogether to the benefit and yet the employer is within the law notwithstanding the provisions of clause 7(2) (a). I think that if the purposes of the Bill are to be properly served, a provision should be made in the Bill so that the mother who has been employed at the inception of the pregnancy shall be entitled to the benefit in any event (unless she has been unemployed during the major portion of the period of pregnancy). For this purpose it should be further provided in the Bill that either one or other of her employers severally and jointly and in proportion to the period of employment under them shall pay the benefit to the mother.

3. With regard to the minimum rate of benefit this should have been fixed at a higher figure (say Re. 1) in view of the fact that the amount distributed by way of benefit is intended both for the mother and the child. Further, for a period before and after delivery of the child, the mother ought to have more than the average nourishment.

Minute of dissent by Mrs. Hemaprova Majumdar, M.L.A.

My contentions are as follows:—

1. Under sub-clause (2) of clause 3 of the Bill a woman shall not be permitted under penalty to work in a factory during the four weeks immediately following the day of her delivery but under the proviso to sub-clause (1) of clause 4 she will not be entitled to maternity benefit unless she has been employed for a period of nine months preceding the day of delivery. Supposing that such a woman has got no other means of livelihood, what shall she and her child live upon after delivery? When an employer employs a pregnant woman he must take the responsibility of maintaining her and the child, if delivered living, at least for four weeks. Maternity benefit should have been made available to a woman for four weeks after delivery, irrespective of the period of her employment. If, however, such a provision would prove to be a great hardship upon the employer in the case of a woman employed for less than 9 months, he must have been made liable to advance to the woman a sum of money equal to the prescribed amount of maternity benefit, making the advance repayable by a monthly instalment of Re. 1.

2. Clause 5 is not clear as to whether a pregnant woman is entitled to be absent for reasons connected with her pregnancy without previous notice to the Manager, and clause 7 also is not clear whether absence at any time for reasons connected with pregnancy may not be ground of dismissal. These things should have been made clear.

3. In clause 7(2) (b) the decision of the Inspector of Factories should not have been made final. Right to remedy for wrong dismissal should have been made exercisable in a Court of Law.

4. Prosecution of the employer for not paying maternity benefit should not have been made subject to the sanction of the Inspector of Factories as under clause 11(7) and of the Labour Commissioner as under clause 11A. Right to the maternity benefit in any case should have been exercisable in a Court of Law, either by direct complaint to the Court or by way of appeal against the decision of the Inspector of Factories or the Labour Commissioner, as the case may be.

RESOLUTION—No. 14670For.

Calcutta, the 25th July 1938.

It has been brought to the notice of Government that owing to the progressive denudation of forests in West Bengal by tenants and private owners the supply of timber and firewood has become endangered and that there is reason to believe that owing to soil erosion, large tracts of lands are becoming bare and most unproductive. There is also reason to apprehend that the destruction of the forests rendering West Bengal as a whole more and more liable to flood and drought.

If this estimate of the situation is correct, it is clearly a matter of public importance that measures should be taken to preserve what is left of these forests. Government have therefore decided to appoint a Committee to investigate the facts and to make recommendations to Government as to the remedies which should be applied to prevent this grave threat to the prosperity of the countryside.

2. The terms of reference will be as follows:—

(i) Is it advisable to take measures in West Bengal for—

(a) the conservation of those forests which still exist there;

(b) the re-afforestation of any areas which have been denuded of forests;

(c) the afforestation of any areas which have been rendered unproductive.

(ii) If so, what measures, having regard to the reasonable needs of the local people, should be adopted and by what agency should they be carried out?

(iii) What changes would, in consequence, be advisable in the existing law?

Conditions.

1. The Officer holding the auction is not bound to accept the highest or any offer for any lot. The sale of any lot, the value of which exceeds Rs. 5,000, shall not be complete until confirmed by the Conservator of Forests, Bengal.

2. If the Officer holding the auction accepts an offer for any lot, the purchaser who has made the accepted offer shall immediately deposit as earnest money Rs. 100 in currency notes if the bid is below Rs. 1,000, Rs. 200 for a bid between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000, and Rs. 300 for a bid over Rs. 2,000. This earnest money will be returned if the sale is not confirmed, and will be transferred to the security deposit if the sale is confirmed; but if the amount of the earnest money be more than the required security deposit, the excess amount of the earnest money will be credited as part revenue for the lot. If an intending purchaser so desires he may deposit a sum of Rs. 300 in the Treasury before the auction and produce the Treasury Chalan in support as earnest of good faith for all bids he may make at the auction; provided that such chalan shall be handed in before the auction opens and that the intending purchaser agrees that the deposit shall be applicable jointly and severally to each and every offer he may make; (Chalan forms for this purpose may be obtained from local Range Offices on application).

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit security as follows:—

- (1) For Clear Felling Lots, 10 per cent. of the purchase money.
- (2) For Selection Coupes, 15 per cent. of the purchase money.

5. Purchasers of lots marked † in the list will be required to guarantee the supply of first class sleepers of the denominations and up to the numbers at the specified prices and by the prescribed dates as detailed in the schedule. Payment for these sleepers will be made by the Railway Sleeper Control Officer after they have been passed by the Sleeper Passing Officer and loaded by the supplying Contractor.

6. Purchasers will be required to sign agreements in the printed form for outright sales (a copy of which may be seen at the Divisional Forest Offices at Darjeeling, Kurseong, Kalimpong, Buxa and Jalpaiguri and Rajabhatkhawa Sub-divisional Forest Office).

(d) In clause 6 of the agreement, claim for shortage in number of trees and timber will be accepted up to 31st October 1938.

8. Failure to complete the payment of security deposit by the prescribed date will render the purchaser liable to forfeiture of the earnest money and failure to sign the agreement within one month of confirmation of sale will render the purchaser liable to forfeiture of the security deposit.

The lot or lots so affected shall be resold by public auction at the discretion of the Divisional Forest Officer, and the purchaser shall be liable for any loss, short of bid, on such resale.
